Vice President Honored

Politicians come and go warns the old adage. For most of us the going away usually evokes a better response than the coming in: somewhat like the new year. However, there exists a vacancy in the S.G.A. where the reverse holds true. Randy Krise who served on the Student Government Association since fall of 1974 and held the position of Vice President until January of 1976 has transferred to Georgia State University to continue his education. Mr. Krise leaves behind a list of accomplishments rarely matched in extracurricular activities. Aside from Mr. Krise's work on the SGA, he was active on the Student Publication Board, served as a voting member on the Students Affairs Council and was chairman of last year's Leadership Conference. Randy Krise graduated with honors and his name appeared on the Dean's list since his first quarter at Kennesaw. Mr. Krise participated in the 4-year drive and remained active on the Montage (year book) staff as well as working with the Sentinel. In addition, Mr. Krise still found time to work as road manager for the legendary and now underground "Lazy X Dude Ranch and Collective Love Farm Band." Randy was awarded a plaque in recognition for his outstanding service at a going away party. Presenting the plaque was the President of the SGA, June Roland. Those who turned out for the presentation included Horace Sturgis, President of Kennesaw; Mrs. Krise, Frank Wilson, co-ordinator of student affairs; Dr. Boman Davis, faculty advisor to the club; Pat Loyd, Sentinel secretary; Ken Rodgers, new Vice President of SGA; Wayne Carter, ex-senator and campus activist; Delcia Steelman; and Patrick Miller, Sentinel Editor. We shall miss Mr. Krise and wish him success with his future endeavors.

Who's Who In Entertainment

Last issue we ran a series of articles concerning entertainment. It was a very special issue for me because of the job the Entertainment Committee has done. The first impression a person would have after looking at the accomplishments of the committee would be that it's an organization of about twenty people. The movies, dances and over-all attempts of this organization have been tremendous. What remains even more phenomenal is that the majority of work is done by two students Becky Rentz and Tony "Antonio" Maddox. Aside from making most of the posters around school, scheduling events, dances, movies, and calendars of events (the master calendar), Tony and Becky are consistently working to bring about better events. They remain open to suggestions and work long hours so that when it's time to "boogie" the student has a place and an event to boogie at. They are two of the best people on campus to know and are always willing to help. If you have a suggestion or a criticism, go by their office. Both are more than willing to help. Indeed, the job they do is a difficult one - almost as difficult as staying awake at an SGA meeting. So, the Sentinel takes great pleasure in wishing them success and good luck with future projects.

Senate Passes

Amendment

An amendment to the present Student Government Association Constitution has been proposed by the Student Government Association. The amendment to Article IV Section 3 reads as follows: The election of a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer shall be held the Monday and Tuesday of the seventh week in winter quarter.

The present Constitution calls for the elections to be held the fifth week of spring quarter. The Student Government Association feels that by making this amendment there will be more continuity. The officers will still take office summer quarter as always but with the new election time they will have a full quarter to work with the people they are replacing.

All Clubs And Organizations

The Black Student Alliance of Kennesaw Jr. College will hold its second annual Black Awareness Week, Feb. 9-14, 1976.

The events during the week will include speakers, panel discussions, drama performances, and exhibits.

To start the Black Awareness Week there will be a dance Feb. 7, 1976 in the James V. Carmichael Student Center at 7:00 p.m.

To climax the week a talent show will be held Feb. 14, 1976 in the Student Center starting at 6:00 p.m.

If your organization has any members that would like to participate in the panel discussions or talent show they may contact Diane Hamilton at 422-8770 Ext. 290, Counseling Office.

A schedule of time and dates of events will be sent to you at a later date.

Blues From The Top

Over the past quarters the Sentinel has attempted to serve as an extension of various clubs and organizations. It has been our goal to keep the students informed as to the progress that these organizations are making. We have listened patiently to "New From the Top", "Views From the Top", and for lack of anything progressive, we have simply recorded the Student Government Association minutes so that the student could evaluate the performance of this organization without being opinionized into oblivion.

However, with the amount of vacant positions growing with in the Senate, the time has come for a lethal amount of good old criticism.

It is my opinion that the SGA has transcended itself from a body of concerned students into apathetic, unconcerned bodies taking the form of students. Petty power plays and pointless bickering have stagnated the SGA's growth. Appointments are made when vacancies exist in a style that makes the weary editor wonder if "King Fish Louie", Boss Tweed, and the "Duke of Duval" do not have some descendants enrolled at KJC. Qualifications are a thing of the past or are at least secondary in lieu of a position on the SGA. It remains a popularity contest where voting members abstain and do not know what the word means.

The SGA has become a place here a student is almost defeated not as a result of inability, but because he is alien to "the group" and worst yet because he might attempt to get something done. Issues and projects that are vital to the student such as a walkway from our Student Center to other buildings, lights for the tennis courts, co-ordination between the various other organizations have taken "back seat" to "more important" projects such as "raising hell" over the purchase of a piano. Hopefully, the harmony produced from our new piano will overcome the discord within SGA. Although it's tragic, there exists a growing number of students who are asking "What have they done?"

State of The Campus Address

By June Rowland

For the first time, the executive officers of the Student Government Association decided the organization would officially function during summer quarter. Besides adjusting to new leadership, solving internal problems, and planning for the coming year, the SGA was able to offer legal advice to students and faculty and participate in orientation and registration.

The legal advice offered free of charge to students and faculty was well received by the student body. Mark Eisenberg, an attorney in Marietta, offered his services free of charge one day a week. The SGA was to make appointments and provide a facility on campus for legal consultation. Steve Floyd chaired the Legal Aid Committee and did a fine job setting up and advertising this service. However, SGA was met with some opposition concerning legal aid. The president of the college pointed out that there was some question as to legal ethics and that it would be to our advantage to postpone the service until the Cobb County Bar Association had ruled on the issue. After conferring with the faculty advisor for SGA, Dr. Bowman Davis, it was decided to postpone the service. It was pointed out that Georgia State University was offering the same service to its students. The SGA at Kennesaw Junior College arranged, and is still offering, referral legal aid service to students and faculty in conjunction with Georgia State University's SGA.

Mr. Frank Wilson, Coordinator of Student Affairs, asked SGA to participate in orientation for fall quarter. There were three Orientations and most of the members of SGA participated and recruited other students to participate. The students served as group leaders to inform new students of campus life and extend them a personal invitation to become involved in clubs and organizations on campus.

The SGA also overwhelmingly responded to a call for service from Mr. Jim Woods for fall registration. The students worked all day and into the evening, and under the direction of Mr. Woods did everything they could to assist in the smooth operation of registration.

The SGA saw itself going into fall quarter governing the largest student body ever to be enrolled at KJC. It was discussed in SGA circles that along with economic conditions, Veterans returning and growth of the surrounding counties, the publicity received from the Four Year Campaign launched last year, and still continuing, was in part responsible for this historic enrollment.

Fall quarter proved to be one of the most productive and perhaps the most historic for any SGA in the history of the college. Some of the major activities and accomplishments were, participation in the dedication of the James V. Carmichael Student Center, election of Senators, hosting the Grey Panthers, organizing a leadership conference, purchase of an ID-Card machine, and the speedy operation of the pool tables.

The SGA members served with pride as host and hostess to over one-thousand people who attended the dedication of the James V. Carmichael Student Center. President Horace Sturgis asked for student participation in the dedication. Under the guidance of President Sturgis and Ms. Cullene Harper, Director of Community Services, the SGA chose to present a plaque to Mrs. James V. Carmichael in honor of her late husband. The presentation was made in a formal ceremony by the president of SGA. Toward the end of the ceremony a banner was unfurled by students which read, "FOUR YEARS NOW". This action was well received by everyone in attendance. Thanks to some good organization and hard work from Wayne Carter and Randy Krise the banner was a big boost to the Four Year Campaign. The SGA was indeed honored to have been a part of the historic dedication ceremony, and to have heard Governor George Busbee, the guest speaker, proclaim and re-emphasize the high quality of education at KJC and his campaign promise of a four year institution.

Another historic event for the SGA was the election of ten Senators, five of which for the first time were night students. Randy Krise chaired the Election Board which worked extremely hard in organizing and implementing the election. The election ran smoothly and was not contested. The SGA members are comprised of six females and eight males and these people are genuinely dedicated in representing the student body to the best of their ability.

Dr. Barbara Karcher called upon the SGA to extend a helping hand to about seven-hundred members of the Grey Panthers Organization who met on our campus for a lecture and luncheon. Chip Russell was instrumental in organizing a group of students to assist in directing the group from the gym to the student center and in serving and seating the members for lunch.

A major activity organized and implemented by the SGA was a leadership conference with emphasis on cooperation, organization and communication. Invitations were extended to representatives of all clubs and organizations and members of the faculty. New freshmen students that had indicated an interest in student government were also invited to attend. A committee chaired by Randy Krise with valuable input from Chip Russell, Winifred Seay, Howell Swain, Ken Rogers, and Becky Rentz accomplished a monumental task in making the leadership conference a reality. The committee utilized the services of Dr. Fred Newton, professor at the University of Georgia to implement the objectives of the conference. The SGA is already adopting a plan similar to the one learned during the conference to promote cooperation, organization and communication between the clubs and organizations on campus.

The decision by SGA to spend a portion of Student Activity Monies on an ID-Card machine will benefit each student at KJC. The machine will produce an attractive plastic covered ID card that will reveal the picture of the student bearing the card as well as the official seal of the college. The new ID cards will bring KJC up to date in this area, as all the other colleges and Junior Colleges (except Atlanta Jr. College) in the University System have these type cards. These cards will be validated each quarter and therefore can be used for your entire stay at KJC. The new cards will aid the library, be used for admission to future entertainment events, and can be used by the student as accepted identification when cashing checks with local merchants and department stores. Last year, Patrick Miller and Kathy Medvid procured the information on different types of ID machines available. This information was used by this years ID Card Committee consisting of Howell Swain, Hal Love, and Nancy Mitchell, to select and purchase the best machine.

The pool tables occupying space on the balcony in the Student Center were purchased this summer. Randy Krise, Vice President of SGA, represented students in the selection and purchase of these tables. Some complications developed concerning the pool tables that could have delayed the operation of the tables until late into fall quarter. However, Randy stayed on top of the situation and was instrumental in solving the problem which enabled speedy operation of the pool tables.

This report only highlights the most important events of SGA and in no way reflects the total activities and accomplishments of summer and fall quarters.

This report would not be complete without including the offices of Dean of Student Affairs and Coordinator of Student Affairs. The SGA is grateful to Dean Carol Martin, Mr. Frank Wilson, Ms. Carol Lindsey and Ms. Terri Ferguson. Without the continued efforts and assistance from these people, along with Dr. Bowman Davis, SGA faculty advisor, our activities could not meet with success.

The SGA of Kennesaw Junior College proclaims to the students and faculty, "Please call on us! We are willing and able to serve you."

Registration Breaks Winter Record at KJC

Some 2,951 students have registered for a record-breaking winter quarter at Kennesaw Junior College, according to unofficial figures released today by James W. Woods, director of registration.

"This was the largest registration we've ever done in one day," explained the KJC official. Woods said the effort required "campus-wide cooperation."

The 1976 figure represents a growth of 717 students over winter quarter 1975, and includes a rising number of new students, according to Thomas H. Rogers Jr., registrar and director of admissions. "It is really a mixed situation," he continued. "Some people still are out of work, and others apparently are returning to employment. This trend is reflected in a slight decrease in the number of returning students."

Traditionally, winter quarter enrollment falls several percentage points below fall quarter figures. For the past two years at KJC, however, this has not been true. The unofficial 1976 winter figure of 2,951 marks only a slight decline from fall quarter's 3,098. College officials concur that the economy is influencing enrollment growth at lower-cost, public institutions.

Rogers pointed out that the KJC registration includes a large number of veterans, with approximately 500 enrolled for winter quarter, an increase from 423 in winter quarter, 1975.

Ric Masten

Ric Masten, poet-philosopher, troubador, will be in the Atlanta area during the period February 1-15, 1976.

Masten is one of the few widely traveled poets who works in the oral tradition and makes his living at it. His work is written to be heard - either spoken or sung, although four books of his poems have been published. His subjects include a wide range of things - love, marriage, work, loneliness, suicide, death, meaning in life -- and each of his presentations is designed on the spot, editing as he goes along, taking his cues from what he feels about the audience in front of him. This makes every program different and gives one the sense of being engaged in conversation rather than watching a one-man show.

Ric, who makes his home in Big Sur, California, has been in his life a trashman, day-laborer, artist and, in Hollywood, a professional songwriter/publisher (rock), and since 1968 a poem/song/writer/reader/singer.

Bicentennial AGE Seminars

A series of five Bicentennial AGE Seminars beginning in Cobb County in January will focus on topics including working in America, the business of America, and life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Co-sponsored by Kennesaw Junior College and the South Cobb YWCA, the AGE (attitude-growth-enthusiasm) programs are open without charge to older adults, professionals and volunteers.

On Thursday, Jan. 8, Dr. Susan D. Hudson, KJC physical education instructor, will discuss "Enjoying the Fruits of Labor." The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Activities Room of the KJC Carmichael Student Center. The same program will be presented on Monday, Jan. 26, at the South Cobb YWCA at 10:30 a.m.

In February, Dr. S. Fred Roach Jr., associate professor of history at KJC, will speak on "We Pledge Allegiance." "Selling the Consumer" will be the topic of March AGE seminars, led by Charles F. Martin, assistant professor of economics at KJC.

Dr. Helen S. Ridley, KJC political science instructor, and Mrs. Martha W. Bargo, English instructor, will present a program on "The Pursuit of Pleasure." The Bicentennial AGE series will conclude in May with programs by Dr. George H. Beggs, chairman of the Division of Social Science, who will discuss "America In the World."

President Sturgis Honored

Cobb Chamber Presents Award

Dr. Horace Sturgis became the 37th recipient of the Cobb County Chamber of Commerce's "Citizen of the Year" award Friday evening, January 17. Otis Brumby, Jr., publisher of the Marietta Daily Journal, presented Dr. Sturgis with the award. Brumby praised Dr. Sturgis as "the guiding force behind the development of what is now recognized as Georgia's finest junior college." Otis Brumby, Jr. continued the presentation stating, "Under the leadership of President Sturgis, Kennesaw Jr. College has developed from a school of approximately 1,000 students to a student body of more than 3,000 this past quarter." Sturgis has served as director of the Cobb Chamber of Commerce, been active in the efforts of the American Red Cross, and has worked closely with the Marietta Community Symphony. Brumby praised Dr. Sturgis for "his interest in the total community". Under his leadership, Kennesaw Jr. College has become more than a place for courses for college credit. The campus has become a focal point for community activities. Other outstanding Georgians who came to congratulate Dr. Sturgis included Mr. George Simpson, Chancellor of the Board of Regents; Congressman Larry McDonald; and Fred Aiken, President of the 1976 Chamber of Commerce. A letter from Representative Joe Frank Harris, congratulating Dr. Sturgis was read to the guests at the banquet. Dr. Harris was unable to attend the dinner due to business he and with Gov. Busbee.

Prior knowledge that Dr. Sturgis was to receive the award remained a closely guarded secret on the Kennesaw campus all week. "We're very proud of Dr. Sturgis and his efforts here at Kennesaw", said Sybil Williams, Director of Community Services for the college. "We wanted very much for the award to come as a total surprise." Dr. Sturgis accepted the award on "behalf of all Cobb countians". Dr. Sturgis went on to say, "I thank each and every one of you tonight from the bottom of my heart. It is the greatest thing that has happened to me in my life."

A reception was held for Dr. Sturgis after the banquet. Those attending the award ceremony from Kennesaw Junior College included Mrs. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Huck, and Mr. and Mrs. Harper.

Student Activities Holds Meeting

The Student Activities Council held its first meeting of the quarter on January 14, 1976. Carol Martin, Dean of Students presided. Faculty representation included J. B. Tate (Social Sciences dept.), Susan Hudson (Physical Education dept.), Mrs. Martin (Business dept.), Don Faye (English and Humanities dept.). The Administration was represented by Frank Wilson, Student Activities Co-ordinator and Roger Hopkins, the college Controller. Representation of the student body included the SGA president, June Roland; SGA treasurer, Winifred Seay; and newly elected vice president, Ken Rogers.

The meeting began with a discussion of possibly acquiring speaker, Dick Gregory on campus for Black Awareness Week. Diane Hamilton requested that the project be funded through this committee. The BSA and the SGA have donated money for Mr. Gregory but a balance of $1,100 was still needed. J. B. Tate mentioned that the Kennesaw Junior College Forum could allocate $200.00. The committee voted unanimously to sponsor the event. Dean Martin pointed out that the purpose of the Student Affairs Council was to approve such activities and the allocating of money. Final approval for Mr. Gregory's lecture must come from the Student Affairs Council. Frank Wilson requested that funds be allocated from surplus money for the purchase of the following items:

1. For entertainment, one public address system. Cost - $1200.00
2. Pool table. Cost - $1200.00
3. One Bumper pool table. Cost - $399.00
4. One Electric I.B.M. typewriter. Cost - $450.00
5. Canoe rack and canoes. Cost $1000.00

Mr. Wilson asked the committee to make these recommendations to the President. The committee voted unanimously to do so.

Becky Rentz requested that funds be allocated to the Entertainment Committee for a concert. Roger Hopkins stated that funds were on hand for such an event. The motion was called and passed. Don Faye requested $500.00 for the Bicentennial Program. the money could be used to present Betty Smith in concert. Ms. Smith is renowned for bluegrass-country music. At 4:10 p.m. a motion was made to adjourn. The motion was seconded and the meeting adjourned.

Coffeehouse

Last week at our Coffee House we were visited by a duo, "Bear and Harmonica Bob". This was without a doubt one of the best Coffee Houses we have had this year. Their combination of country rock, bluegrass and just "good ole music" kept the Coffee House going for three hours. Harmonica Bob's talent for blowing the harp is rarely seen. With a case full of different harmonicas, Bob Graham belted out tunes like Six Days On The Road, Please Bury Me, Tequila Sunrise, and Amie. Together with Bear's guitar and voice the duo put on quite a show. We hope to have them back in the near future for those who enjoyed them and those who didn't get the chance to.

We also heard some tunes from Jim Perdue, a student here at Kennesaw. He was not scheduled to play, but was an excellent surprise. He filled in during the breaks to make a well rounded day of music. Jim will be a featured guest in our Coffee House on March 3.

We have our Coffee Houses every other Wednesday, so drop in for free coffee, cookies and good music. We bring in outside musicians most of the time, but sometimes we depend solely on student participation. If you would like to play sign the time and date on the list in the control booth. These events have been very successful in the past and we hope you will keep the success of the Coffee Houses and other events going. Thank you for your support and participation.

The University System of Georgia

Regents' Testing Program

It is the responsibility of each institution in the University System of Georgia to assure the other institutions, and the System as a whole, that students obtaining a degree from that institution possess the basic competence of academic literacy, that is, certain minimum skills of reading and writing. The University System of Georgia Regents' Testing Program has been developed to help in the attainment of this goal.

To meet the objectives of the Testing Program, which is coordinated by the Dean of the College, Kennesaw Junior College has adopted a policy which contains the following elements:

1. Passing the test is a requirement for graduation.
2. Students enrolled in degree programs who have successfully completed 45 hours, including English 101 and English 102, are encouraged to take the test at this time.
3. A list of students who have completed 45 hours and the time and place of the test is posted on campus bulletin boards each quarter.
4. The test is administered twice on one day each quarter, once during the day and once during the evening.
5. Students are excused from classes to take the test.
6. A brief preparatory session is offered each quarter for those students wishing a review.
7. Upon request, students whose mother tongue is not English are exempted from the test.
8. The test, although consisting of more than one part, is considered a single unit and is administered as such; passing the test is defined as scoring above the cutoff on each of the parts of it as the same administration.
9. Students who fail any part of the test must retake and pass the entire test. These students are required to take the Regents' Test Remediation Course and next quarter they are enrolled at Kennesaw Junior College. Passing this course is prerequisite to retaking the test.
10. Successful completion of the test is noted on the student's permanent record card.
11. Students eligible to take the test should register for the test in the Office of the Assistant Dean at least one week prior to administration of the test. At this time, students pick up a Regents' Test Admission Form. Both the Admission Form and the student identification card are required for admission to the test.

Jan. 29 - Final date to register for Regents' in Assistant Dean's office.

Pie Face Assassins Strike

One reason last spring's pie-facing fad was so short-lived was that there were many people who didn't think it was all that funny.

One who didn't was a U. of Kansas psychology professor who got chocolate-creamed in the face by a student in his classroom last May. He pressed battery charges against the student, allegedly a member of the Brotherhood of Pieface Assassins.

Last month the student, free on $500 bond, got a full jury trial at which his supporters marched wearing pie-tin helmets and bearing signs reading, "If pies were outlawed, only outlaws would have pies," and "Walk softly and carry a big pie."

The student testified that the professor's students had chipped in to raise a $20 fee for the pie hit but that the student never received his pay.

The professor said, "I filed the complaint because the student had disrupted my professional activities. Someone had to set a limit."

The 12 members of the jury listened diligently to testimony about such points as the incident itself, the extent of stain damages to the professor's clothes, the degree of force used in detaining the pie-thrower, and the professor's popularity - or lack of

MOUNTAIN NEWS

E.R.A. Still Misunderstood

by Chris Cash

There is more talk than ever these days about possible ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. Many of those people still in opposition to this overdue amendment have misunderstandings about its meaning and consequences.

For those of you who are in opposition or are unsure about your decision concerning the ERA I would like to attempt to dispel any reservations you may hold.

The Equal Rights Amendment simply states:

- Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State on account of sex.

- The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

- This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.

*The purpose of the two-year period is to allow the States and the Federal Government adequate time to eliminate distinctions based on sex.

Let me emphasize that the ERA applies only to governmental action. Purely social relationships between men and women will continue to be what the individuals make it.

The ERA has been in existence since 1923. It was created by the National Women's Party who were wise enough to know that the granting of suffrage would not necessarily mean the granting of equality.

Since 1923 the ERA has been introduced into almost every session of Congress. In 1972, forty-nine years after its conception, the amendment was finally passed by Congress with an overwhelming majority. Thirty-four states have now ratified the ERA with four more needed by 1979 in order to become law.

Georgia is one of those states which have yet to realize the importance of this amendment. In the 1974 session of the General Assembly it failed by 22 votes; in 1975 it failed by 11.

Why is the ratification of the ERA important and what effect will it have on our individual lives? These are the questions that must be answered in order for the amendment to receive full support.

Here are some existing discriminatory practices which the ERA would nullify:

- State laws that require married women but not married men to go through a formal procedure and obtain court approval before they engage in an independent business.

- Discriminatory preferences, based on sex, in child custody cases.

- Social Security and other social benefits legislation which give greater benefits to one sex than to the other.

- Special sex-based exemptions for women in selection of State juries.

- Different ages for males and females in a) age for marriage; b) cutoff of the right to parental support; c) juvenile court jurisdiction.

6. Exclusion of women from the requirements of the Military Selective Service Act of 1967.

7. Heavier criminal penalties for female offenders than for male offenders committing the same crime.

In discussing the effects of the ERA with different people there appears to be 3 major issues on which there is the most controversy.

One is the fear that the ERA would nullify special State protective labor laws for women.

Federal law (Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964) prohibits sex discrimination in employment. Those employers covered by the Act must treat men and women equally.

What was once, in fact, "protective" labor laws for women has become in many cases an excuse not to hire women because of special treatment she is believed to need. Often, it is found, that doy so-called protective legislation for women has become restrictive and discriminatory.

Women workers need the same things as men workers; broad coverage by Federal wage and hour legislation, guarantees against occupational hazards, etc.

The second issue is fear that the ERA would require sweeping changes in laws pertaining to the family.

The amendment would simply require equality. In States where the law provides for alimony only for wives, courts could award alimony to husbands as well, under the same conditions that apply with respect to wives. Mothers and fathers would both be legally responsible for the support of their children, as is usually the case under existing law.

Perhaps the uppermost question in the minds of women is whether she will be subject to the draft.

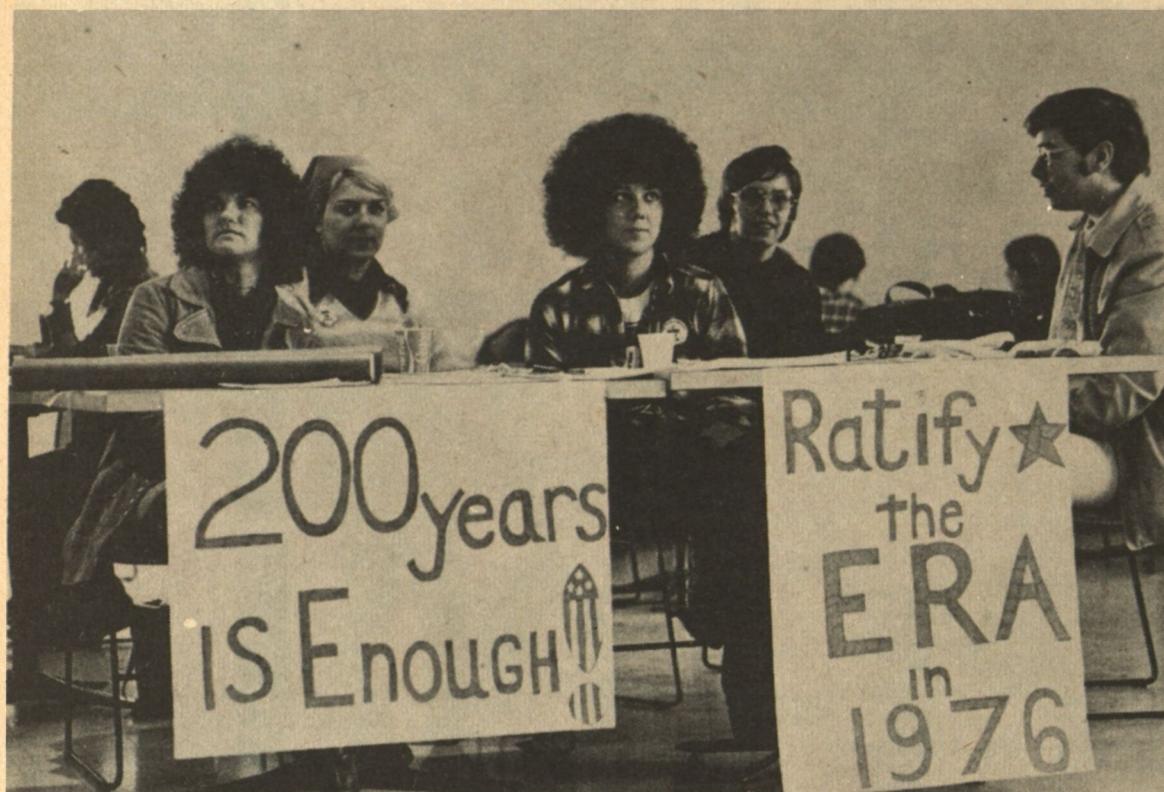

This is true. Under the ERA women could be called for service the same as men with the same considerations for people with children. Women would be required to register for military service and called for induction on the same basis as men and enjoy the same benefits.

If that tends to scare you to death, as it does me, then maybe we all need to work harder to see that nobody, male or female, ever need to participate in a war again.

That is what the ERA means and the major effects it will have. It will not require the abolishment of separate restrooms nor will it suddenly acknowledge homosexual marriages.

Rep. Edith Green of Oregon sums it up very well. She says, "The search for human identity and dignity is not uniquely any one person's. Every man and every woman pursues the search for his and her place where each may stand with a sense of self-respect and self-worth equal to that of all other human beings."

No Exit: Open City A.M. Theatre

On Friday, January 9th, Open City's new experimental theatre forum, A.M. Theatre, opened with Jean-Paul Sartre's NO EXIT, directed by Jo Giraudo. "After Midnight" Theatre's curtain is at 12:10 A.M.

This new production of the famous existentialist's most successful one-act drama will take on innovative aspects. Highlighted are the light moments, the endless games and the relationships among the delightfully contrasted characters, providing an almost comedic quality. There is the catatonic bellboy (Ron Lampkin) who slouches and shrugs as he ushers in the main characters: Garcin (Robin Hale), the pacifist journalist and man of letters, who cannot tear his concentration away from the earthly vision of the men in his copyroom to pay enough attention to Estelle (P.J. Laurel), the vibrant socialite nymph. Controlling them both and always several steps ahead in the game, Inez (Charli Sirmans) uses her intellect to orchestrate the emotions of the other two.

NO EXIT will run Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 12:10 A.M. through the 24th. For reservations call Open City Theatre, 1062 St. Charles Avenue, at 404-892-0182.

International Club

by Susan Sewell

Bored with the same old routine and classes you really aren't interested in? If this seems to describe your situation, turn your attention to KJC's interesting foreign language department and its equally exciting International Club. Gone are the traditionally useless phrases that many students tend to remember of high school days. Besides learning the practical application of Spanish or French, foreign countries, their people and their customs are examined. KJC's well informed instructing staff makes language class interesting through their experience of living in another country, often supplemented by color slides. The International Club of Kennesaw continues the learning experience through association with other estudiantes de espanol y frances. Various fiestas and the all important International Day are among the activities planned this quarter. Membership is open to all KJC students who are interested in meeting international students and discovering different lifestyles. If you are one of the many looking for an elective both practical and interesting, the foreign language department and the International Club can provide a bright spot in your schedule next quarter and quite possibly in future career opportunities. For more information contact Judy Myers or Judith Larsen in the Humanities Building and watch campus bulletin boards for upcoming events sponsored by the International Club.

Memorandum

It is now a policy of the college that whenever a performance or activity is held in the college gymnasium during the hours that maintenance personnel are not present, that at least one maintenance person who is knowledgeable of the facilities lighting, heating and cooling, and bell systems be retained for the duration of the activity. The funds to employ this person will be charged to the budget of that particular club/organization requesting such services. Requests for maintenance personnel should be made on the College's "Request for Supplies and Services" form #24218.

If you have any questions pertaining to this policy, please do not hesitate to contact me.

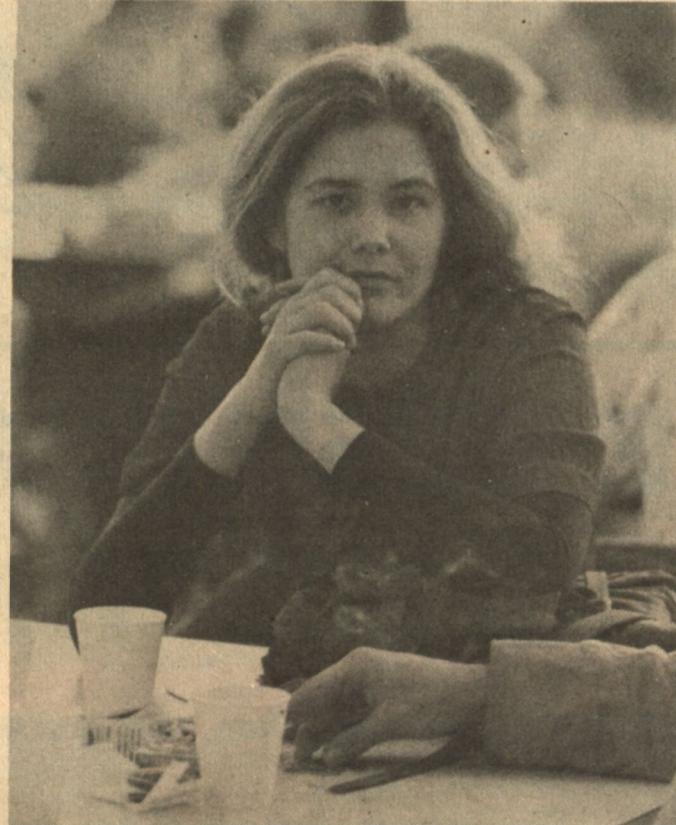

All Clubs, Organizations, & Faculty Advisors

FROM: Frank F. Wilson

Due to several recent events, I must emphasize the process by which events may be sponsored on the KJC campus.

As stated in the Student Rules & Regulations, Section SV, B: in order for a club or organization to sponsor a social function, lecture, or any other special event, the sponsoring student organization "must make written application to, and receive permission from, the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs . . . Such requests must be submitted one week before the date of the activity. This permission must be received before making any agreement in connection with the function."

Your cooperation in abiding by the college Student Rules and Regulations will be appreciated. Failure to do so may result in said club or organization being placed "on probation for one year or inactivation of the organization."

Academy Theatre

The Academy Theatre has selected for its next production John Steinbeck's "Of Mice And Men." The play will open in early January and run through February, 1976. Frank Wittow will direct the Academy Theatre's professional repertory company in this popular American classic.

"Of Mice And Men" first opened in New York in 1937. A parable of American loneliness and a longing for a home and brotherhood, the play caught the imagination of a country still recovering from the great depression.

"John Steinbeck, one of America's favorite authors, seemed an appropriate choice to begin the bicentennial year," according to director Wittow. In his books and plays, such as "The Grapes of Wrath," Steinbeck manages to combine a sophisticated literary talent with earthiness and an awareness of the plight of the underprivileged.

The Academy Theatre actors are currently playing sold-out performances and earning critical acclaim for their portrayals of characters in Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice." "Of Mice And Men" will feature the same actors in very different roles; for example, Chris Curran, now Shylock, will be Slim; Gay Griggs, currently a very elegant and witty Portia, will play Curley's wife; Larry Larson, now portraying the romantic Lorenzo, will play the cowboy, George.

The Merchant of Venice will continue at the Academy theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights now through December 13, 1975. Tickets cost from $3.00-6.00. For reservations for "The Merchant of Venice" and information about "Of Mice And Men," call the Academy Theatre at 261-8550.

King's Dream Lives On

Statement by Mrs. Coretta Scott King

There is a common thread between the hope for justice expressed at the founding of our nation 200 years ago, and the demand for justice enunciated by my husband in our own life time. For the celebration of the 47th Birthday Anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on January 14 and 15, 1976 we will address this linkage of hope, two centuries ago, an urgent need today. The theme will be "The Bicentennial - America's Challenge to fulfill Dr. King's Dream."

My husband recognized that economic injustice underlies racial class, and political injustice. The movement he led, going all the way back to Montgomery twenty years ago, used non-violence, economic sanctions and sought economic as well as civil rights remedies.

The most compelling issues we as a nation face in 1976, are economics. They can be stated frankly. If there are to be profits, we demand jobs. If there are to be stock dividends, we insist on an adequate income for all. If the military gets on hundred billion dollars, or more, the people must receive decent educational, health and social services. If the giant corporations get tax breaks, every American family must have a tax cut. Above all, we must move this nation toward a full employment economy and the January 14-15 observations will focus on this issue. It is the number one moral, economic and political issue in 1976. We will set the stage for whatever vigorous non-violent action is required to ACHIEVE A MORE EQUITABLE ECONOMIC SYSTEM. If the national government fails to act decisively, the forces represented at our January meetings will be prepared

The over-riding issue of a full employment economy can bring us together in the alliance which forged so much progress during my husband's career. The alliance of organized labor, the working poor, Blacks, Browns, other minorities, women, religion and people of good will. We can and we must prepare America in this Bicentennial period, to face up to the challenge of Dr. King's dream.

In the spirit of our theme for the 1976 celebration of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, it would be a great way to celebrate the Bicentennial as well as honor the life and contributions of my husband if this Nation declared his birthday a national holiday. Therefore, we call for this action at the earliest possible date when the Congress reconvenes in 1976.

Free At Last

by Tyron Copeland

For equality, freedom and peace he fought,
To make the liberty bells ring,
Non-violently, he fought throughout the land,
Did Martin Luther King.
He fought against the violence,
Of both the blacks and whites,
And he strived to a greater extent,
For the people's equal rights.
He stood by his convictions,
Though threatened by those he saw,
He detested all unrighteousness,
Such as hatred, crime, and war.
He did not use the violence,
Such as burning, killing, or hate,
To close the door of bondage,
And to open Freedom's gate.
He marched in Mississippi,
And in Washington, D.C.
To protest racial prejudice,
And to fight for equality.
For love, freedom, and peace,
A violent death he paid the price,
But he's now an undying martyr,
Like his Savior, Jesus Christ,
Now through the many achievements
Of his prosperous past,
The Reverend Martin Luther King,
Is truly FREE AT LAST.

The musical pageant, which is open to the public without charge, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. in the KJC gymnasium by the U.S. Army Forces Command Band (FORSCOM).

KJC To Host Tour By Senior Colleges

Representatives from Georgia's 35 senior colleges will be on campus Wednesday, January 28, for the annual Junior/Senior College Tour.

Students will be invited to drop by the library from 10 a.m. to 12 noon to discuss the educational advantages of the individual colleges. Representatives will be prepared to answer questions concerning admissions policies, educational costs, programs of study and general campus life.

Prior to the discussion sessions, a coffee will be held for college representatives and KJC faculty in the library seminar room at 9:30 a.m. The library will be closed for study purposes during the hours of the tour.

An annual event, the tour is sponsored by the Georgia Association of Junior Colleges and will visit all of Georgia's junior colleges during January and February.

Rape Crisis Center

Opens In Cobb

Cobb county now has a rape crisis center called C.C.R.C.C. (Cobb County Rape Crisis Center). At present it consists of volunteer counselors who have received six or more special training sessions. In order to be referred to a counselor, the victim must go to Kennestone Hospital emergency room. The emergency room personnel will then notify the counselor on call. The counselor will come and counsel the victim and offer psychological support to her.

An office and a hotline number at Kennestone Hospital are in the future plans. The center is approved by the Cobb County Police Department, Marietta Police Deparment, Cobb Mental Health Department, Thirteenth District Nurses Association (Georgia Nurses Association), Y.W.C.A., and other organizations.

If you are interested in becoming a member and counselor, contact John Hutton, Court Administrator, Cobb Judicial Building, at 422-2320. Also, you are invited to attend a panel discussion of the C.C.R.C.C. by Vickie Porter, Bev Henry, Ann Clark, R.N., and Jenny Williams, R.N. on January 28 (Wednesday) at 4:00 p.m. at Atlanta West Hospital. This is the regular program meeting of the Thirteenth District Nurses Association, Georgia Nurses Association.
