

Drama Club Gets First Charter

Monday, May 1, was an important day for the Drama Club. That was the day they received their charter - the first club on the campus to do so. Presented by Dr. Mark E. Meadows, Dean of Students, the charter was the result of much work on the part of officers and members of the club, and their advisor, Mrs. Dorothy McCollum, Assistant Professor of English. On presenting the charter to the president, Robert Myatt, Dean Meadows said, "The Drama Club members, officers, and sponsors deserve much credit for obtaining this goal."

A highlight of the same meeting was the presentation of two monologues taken from The Glass Menagerie and given by representatives of the Drama Club of the Marietta High School, Miss Leta Bagwell presented a portion of Amanda's "Gentleman Callers" scene, and Randy Grizzel, son of Mrs. Madeline Miles, Secretary to the Humanities Division here at the college, portrayed Tom in one of his angrier moments.

COMMITTEE FORMED

A committee composed of Robert Myatt, Barbara Berg, Hugh Schroder, Cheryl Chapman, John Hamrick, Charles Richardson, and Dave Gibson have been selected to draw up a tentative budget for the Drama Club for the coming year. These students met with their advisor, Mrs. Dorothy McCollum, on May 9, and will hold further meetings as necessary.

PORGY AND BESS SINGERS

CULTURAL EVENTS SLATED FOR KJC

According to Mr. James Keith, co-chairman of the "Sub-Committee on a Program of Cultural Events for 1967 - 1968," there are four definite events planned for Kennesaw Junior College for the coming year. They are: July 27 - Porgy and Bess Singers, November 17 - American Classical Theater presentation of Shakespeare's The Tempest, February 29, 1968, - The Norman Luboff Choir, April, 1968 - Paul Winter Ensemble.

PORGY AND BESS SINGERS

The Porgy and Bess Singers is a group composed of Lucia Hawkins, soprano; Laverne Hutcherson, tenor; and Avon Long, baritone. This singing group, which presents a concert of show music, operatic numbers, and spirituals, has been described as "something fresh, unusual and very delightful."

THE PAUL WINTER ENSEMBLE

The Paul Winter Ensemble, comprised of alto saxophone, classical guitar, flute, string bass, and percussion, began as a college group of Northwestern University in Chicago. After winning the Intercollegiate Jazz Festival in 1961, they were signed to a recording contract by Columbia Records and were sent on a six month tour of 23 countries in Latin America by the State Department.

The success of this tour resulted in an invitation from the Kennedys to play the first jazz concert ever held in the White House. The group has appeared at top jazz festivals, played in all the major clubs in the country, and has made numerous network television appearances.

Summer Quarter Schedule

Classes of Summer Quarter at Kennesaw Junior College will begin on Tuesday, June 27; registration will be held on Monday June 26. The end of the quarter (last day of classes) will be on September 1 with final exams starting on Monday 4, September.

During the quarter Kennesaw Junior College's extra-curricular activity will consist of a concert by the Porgy and Bess Singers. This concert will be held at the Marietta Fine Arts Auditorium on July 22, 1967.

First Students To Graduate

According to Dr. Cecil Jackson, Registrar, possibly nine students will graduate from Kennesaw Junior College at the end of the spring quarter.

Graduation ceremonies will be held on the Kennesaw campus at 8 o'clock the evening of June 9, with a reception following the ceremony. Doctor Harry Downs from the Board of Regents will be guest speaker. Diplomas will be given to the eligible graduates. Faculty, students, and friends are invited.

Kennesaw Gets New Controller

Since May 1, Kennesaw Junior College has had a new Controller, Mr. Roger Eugene Hopkins. Mr. Hopkins says that he prefers Kennesaw because of its small size and excellent faculty. He was recently Assistant Comptroller of Georgia State College. He received his degree in Business Administration from Georgia State and also attended Reinhardt Junior College for two years.

The new Controller resides in Smyrna and is a member of the Smyrna Methodist Church. He is also a member of the College and University Personnel Association, the National Association of Purchasing Agents, Southeastern College and University Business Officers, the Smyrna Civitan Club, and Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional business fraternity.

STUDENTS RATIFY CONSTITUTION

Students ratified the Constitution for establishing the Student Government Association by a vote of 156-99. Votes were counted four times by a committee composed of Bob Herrin, Bob Myatt, Charles Richardson, Dwight Frisbee, and Mr. Dale Smith.

An earlier vote had ended in a tie of 87-87. Revisions were made before the second poll was held. The revisions made were to change the vote requirements for amendments from 3/4 to 2/3 of the students voting and to postpone the first election until fall quarter. Also, Roberts' Rules of Order are to be used by the Senate "unless otherwise stipulated" in the Constitution.

STUDENTS ATTEND CONVENTION

Kennesaw Junior College was well represented at a convention of the Georgia College Press Association held at Callaway Gardens on May 13 and 14. There were twelve colleges represented at the convention. Students attending from KJC, all members of the Sentinel staff, were Ronnie Bennett, Louise Bishop, Jimmy Pittman, Jackle Brooks, and Betty Thom. Mrs. Mary Swain, advisor to the Sentinel staff, accompanied the group.

WORKSHOPS HELD

Opening Saturday morning with a workshop stressing layout and use of pictures, given by Mr. Jim Baker, News Editor, Columbus Ledger - Enquirer, the program then moved into separate workshops for editors and staff. "Recruiting and Keeping a Staff" and "Writing Editorials" were the subjects handled by Mr. Glenn McCullough, Executive Manager, Georgia Press Association, and the students editors. "The Reporting of Sports, News, and Features" and "News Gathering" were the categories covered by Mr. Tom Dunkin, Veteran Reporter, Columbus Ledger - Enquirer and staff members.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Sunday's program included a business meeting for the purpose of revising GCPA's Better Newspaper Contest rules, the election of officers and a workshop led by Mr. Frank Child, Rice Printing Co., Manchester, "Typography," "Relations with the Printer," and "Use of the Scale Wheel." A luncheon concluded the program.

CPA AFFILIATE OF GA. PRESS

The Georgia College Press Association was reactivated three years ago and is a branch of the Georgia Press Association. New officers elected at the convention were President - Richard Binkney, Oglethorpe University; Vice President - Nick Ordway, Emory University; Secretary - Angela Dennis, Gordon Military College; Treasurer - Ton Cawthorn, Mercer University.

PITTMAN TO BOARD

An executive board, composed of three four-year colleges and two junior colleges, was also elected. Jimmy Pittman was elected to represent Kennesaw Junior College on the board.

Campus Personalities

BOB MYATT

MRS. MARY SWAIN

By JIMMY PITTMAN

As president of the Drama Club, he succeeded in obtaining the first charter for a club on the campus. Yes, Bob Myatt is a very busy man. It's lucky he can skip back and forth across the lake to his home.

Graduated from Georgia Military College in the class of '66, Bob was a member of the Rifle Team and the Civil Air Patrol. As a non-commissioned officer, Bob graduated in third place from Leadership Academy, and in first place from the Rangers.

Bob attended North Cobb High School in Acworth during his freshman and sophomore years, where he was a member of the Debate Team and the Student Council.

This talented lad is a freshman enrolled in the pre-dentistry course. After Kennesaw, he plans to transfer to Emory to continue his study of dentistry. Bob is a Dean's List student here.

Travelling through Germany, England, and many European countries as a seven year old youngster, Bob recalls some famous sights. His family was there while his father served as a Navy pilot.

When asked by this reporter about his thoughts on Kennesaw, Bob commented that Kennesaw is an excellent college which has had a very fine first year. "I think," says Bob, "that we could certainly stand more student activities in which students could participate."

Bob is a charter member of the Kennesaw chapter of the Circle K Club; and he hopes to strengthen the role of the drama club at KJC.

Our featured student for this month also states that he plans to be active in Student Government next year.

The Sentinel Staff salutes you, Bob Myatt.

THE STAFF

During the long, hot days of August when Kennesaw Junior College was nothing more than borrowed buildings and a half-completed campus, Mrs. Fred Swain, with a few future students and many long hours of tedious work, managed, during the second week of classes, to get out the first issue of the Sentinel.

From then on, despite flaring teenage tempers, a publisher that didn't publish, lost copy, and few more minor inconveniences, Mrs. Swain saw that there was a paper published each month. If this deceptively gentle looking-lady has at times been a real tryant, it could be because she has majored in English, minored in Journalism, been Society Editor of the Red and Black at the University of Georgia, and the Calhoun Times.

Mrs. Swain, the mother of two daughters and the wife of Fred Swain, district manager of Elliot's Business Forms, resides at Rebel Yell on Burnt Hickory Road in Marietta. She has held the positions of Principal of Marietta High School, and Director of Instructions and Personal Director of the Marietta School System.

Sometimes she has had to act like the principal she once was, sometimes she has had to play mother, but most of the time she has been what the staff needed to get through its first year.

The Sentinel staff salutes and loves you, Mrs. Fred Swain.

DAVE CAMPBELL

FORMER STUDENT JOINS VISTA

David P. Campbell, son of Laurie P. Campbell, 1432-G Southland Vista Ct., Atlanta, Ga., was one of 44 trainees who were recently graduated from a VISTA Training Program at a National Training Center in San Diego, Calif. As a Volunteer in Service to America, Campbell will spend one year working with the Victory Baptist Church in Los Angeles.

Immediately before he joined VISTA, Campbell, 20, was a student at Kennesaw Junior College in Marietta, where he was serving as managing editor of the student newspaper. The previous year, he attended De Kalb College. One of his favorite activities is music. President of a folk music club while he was in high school in Santa Monica, Calif. he has belonged to the Atlanta Folk Music Society since July, 1965. His employment experience has included part-time jobs as a parking attendant, a coin telephone collection agent, and a supermarket stock clerk.

During the six-week training program, Volunteers complete classroom study and gain field experience by working near the training site on a project similar to the one to which they will be assigned.

VISTA, Volunteers are now serving in every major city in the nation. They also serve in rural and Indian projects, migrant worker camps, Job Corps camps, and projects for the mentally handicapped.

Wedding Bells Ring for Two Teachers

One Monday morning recently Miss Sandra A. Porep, popular English instructor, surprised the students and faculty of Kennesaw Junior College by announcing that she had been married on the previous Saturday to Cecil Tate, College and is also working on his doctorate in American studies at Emory University. He met the former Miss Porep while both were pursuing graduate studies.

The couple plans to settle in the Atlant area. Mrs. Tate will remain on the faculty at Kennesaw. They plan a honeymoon later in the summer, possibly to Expo 67.

Announced some time ago was Miss Lee's impending marriage to Harold Nave of Charlotte, North Carolina. The ceremony will take place on June 10, at the Peachtree Methodist Chapel in Atlanta.

The newly weds will be at home in Charlotte, where Mrs. Nave is a private music instructor.

Miss Lee will give voice lessons and will be singing with the Charlotte Civic Opera.

Miss Lee met her future husband at Sanford University where he was a member of the faculty.

Honeymoon plans have been made except for the destination, known only to Mr. Nave.

Lu Lu, There Goes The Army Again!

JACKIE BROOKS

OOOGA . . . OOOGA . . . To anyone who was at Callaway Gardens on the weekend of May 12th through May 14th, this would have been quite a familiar sound. Expecting to see a Model T, one would turn around only to see a white convertible drive by with six people falling out - Ronnie Bennett, Louise Bishop, Jackie Brooks, Jimmy Pittman, Betty Thom, and our illustrious advisor and "chaperone," Mrs. Swain. This marked the weekend of the Georgia Press Association Convention.

Our section of the motel was filled with numerous sayings that could be overheard by almost anyone. For instance, if one were listening to a conversation between rooms 181 and 183 at 7:00 Saturday morning, he would have heard Mrs. Swain dial Betty Thom only to have her answer, "Lulu said for you to shut up." (Of course Betty thought it was our automatic alarm clock, Jimmy.)

From Friday afternoon until Sunday afternoon, many other choice expressions were also heard:

Lulu there goes the Army again! . . . Jimmy, what are you doing under my bed? . . . Where's Jackie? I think she joined Gordon Military College . . . Where's Ronnie? . . . Is Mrs. Swain around? . . . Lulu, there goes the Army again! . . . Young lady, will you please get out of the pool with your clothes on! . . . Goodnight, Love . . . Hey! Jacques! . . . Ronnie, what are you doing? . . . How much does our friendship mean to you? . . . Isn't this Columbus? . . . What are you looking at, Buddy? Not Much! . . . You look like you could use a good night's sleep! . . . That looks like Jim Hill . . . Do you have the master key to my room? . . . Lulu, the Army's throwing beer at us again! . . . Jimmy, what are you doing with the keys to three rooms? What's Kennesaw Junior College? . . . That is Jim Hill! . . . Editor? Well . . . Meetings? We have to go to meetings? You must be kidding! . . . Hey Betty, will you please quit knocking on people's doors! . . . Where's Ronnie? Is that straight Coke? . . . Hey Buddy, Mr. Chair man, you forgot Kennesaw Junior College! . . . No, I'm sorry, you can't come in for five minutes

. . . Lulu, there goes the Army again! . . . Jimmy, how did you get so wet? . . . How about keeping your friends out of my side of the room! . . . Mrs. Swain, would you please take Jimmy and Ronnie on another ride? . . . Are you looking for Jackie too? . . . Boy, am I tired! I didn't get in until 5:00 A.M.! . . . Jimmy, Lulu said for you to shut up! . . . THERE'S RONNIE!!

BOOKS PLAY VITAL PARTS IN EDUCATION

The importance of an adequate library to a junior college was explained to the Smyrna Rotary Club Monday at a recent meeting by Robert J. Greene, Librarian for Kennesaw Junior College.

One of the first items considered when a new college applies for accreditation, he said, is the library. A junior college library must have 20,000 volumes to meet the standards of the American Library Association.

These books and the library itself, Mr. Greene continued, play a vital part in the education of students. Even though Kennesaw Junior College offers a total of about 75 courses, he said, the average student takes about 18.

Mr. Salter and Jackie criticize her art work.

SALTER PROMOTES ART ACTIVITIES

If anyone has walked by the Art Room in the Humanities Building and had spare time but did not go in, he has really missed something. Kennesaw seems to have had quite a few artists and people interested in art who are now showing their abilities. Mr. Salter has certainly done an efficient job and is a very capable art instructor. Not only does he show his artistic talent, he has created an atmosphere in and out of the classroom which influences his students to strive for goals other than grades. His introductory art course began with an understanding of art, proceeded to study line and form, and now includes color. Designs in line and color and colleges now appear in the Art Room, Room 122 and Mr. Salter hopes to have an exhibit of work from his students to be shown here at the college in the near future.

Two art showings are available in the Atlanta area now and will be continuing in the near future. These showings began April 30 and will be lasting through May 30 at the Galerie Illien, 18 Peachtree Place, N.E. These showings include the works of two prominent artists, Gabor Peterdi, whose idea of two imposing themes -- landscape and the image of man -- occupy his creative thought and energies. His work includes abstract structural elements in landscape and drawings of charcoal, crayon, and pencil. Also shown are the sculptures of Ruth Gulman who is listed in "Who's Who In The East", and who is also the recipient of the Silver Medal.

Other events listed by the High Museum of Art are:

Cultures of Our Time, May 14 through June 18, and Work by Gifted Children, May 18 through May 30.

CREATIVE CORNER

AFTERMATH: "Les dimanches de ville d'Avray"

He has gone,
leaving the blade
to quiver in the wood,
the rings to spread to memory.
A seldom memory,
a memory of child's love,
honest love,
having no preface
but a broken star;
no substance in time
but a broken series
of seventh days.

Having had a child's dream
of a perfect world
a world now lost to dreams,
and having had in hand
the scepter of the winds,
now an aimless loss,
Having had a nameless love
and nameless lovers.
Having had Cybele,
and a sense of memory.
Having sought a past,
and a childhood dream.

"BLACKOUT"

By JOHN BOYD

There's a Blackout in the city,
The enemy is near.
We think about our loved ones and
Friends we hold so dear.
We think about the good times
We had when we were young;
Of days spent on the playground, But
Now these days are gone.
We hear the children crying,
We say our prayers aloud,
We think of people dying,
Yes, even those so proud.
With the sin that floods our land today,
Should the enemy soon be gone?
If life continues in this way,
Why turn the lights back on?
If a blackout in the city brings
So many to their knees,
Don't think it's just for pity ---
God Reigns in Times Like These!

JIMMY PITTMAN

Pittman Elected To State Post

Jimmy Pittman, one of the delegates to the Georgia College Press Association convention May 13 and 14, was elected to the executive board. This board meets once a month with officers to transact business of the association.

Jimmy, a third quarter freshman, is assistant Editor of the Sentinel.

Scholarship Plans Begin

When the news of GERALD DEAN BOGGS' death reached Mr. Chan's class, plans were made to buy flowers. Bob Myatt, Richard Wheeler, and Bob Herrin were named as a committee to talk with the family.

Because of the response of many students, both friends of Gerri and those who weren't acquainted with her, the committee took a different course.

With the approval of Mr. Chan's class, a fund was set up as the GERALD DEAN BOGGS SCHOLARSHIP FUND. Either a permanent scholarship or an Emergency Loan Fund for students, will be set up in Gerri's name.

Response to this date has been good. Several clubs have shown an interest, and the newly organized Circle K Club has pledged its support.

A collection center for contributions has been set up in the Student Lounge. All students who would like to contribute are invited to do so.

In 1492 The Vikings Sailed..

The other day in History III, we got into a rather heated discussion on who really discovered America. Now, personally, I don't care who discovered this country as long as we're here and everyone knows it, but I'll go along with anything at 8 A.M., especially if it prevents my having to take reams of History notes.

Well, this boy named Charles seemed to think it would be a traumatic experience for a child to be told that Columbus discovered America and then later find this to be untrue. I mean, who's the poor child to believe. Next they'll be telling him there's no such thing as an Easter Bunny.

So, we decided that children as young as first graders should be told the truth. But, this also presented a problem; it ruined the... "in 1492, Columbus sailed the ocean blue..." poem. How on earth would the poor children learn names and dates with no poem to help them?

After giving much intense thought to this problem, I hit upon a solution; I wrote a new poem! Hopefully, in years to come, this is the poem you'll be seeing in all the grammar school geography books. This poem is dedicated to Mrs. Fagg and her 8 A.M. History Class.

Those Vikings in times of old,
Sailed the Ocean, or so we're told.

In the year of Ten Hundred,
On America, they blundered,
Thus leaving poor Columbus out in the cold.

Students Attend SUSGA

Four students and two faculty members represented Kennesaw Junior College at a recent convention of the Southern Universities Student Government Association in Mobile, Alabama.

Lynda Bernard of Austell, and Bob Herrin of Kennesaw, represented the Student Activities Committee, while Louise Bishop, feature editor of "The Sentinel," and Ross Henderson, editor of the "Montage," represented publication.

Mr. Mark Meadows, Dean of Students, and Dr. Roberts, Dean of the college, accompanied the students.

The students left early Thursday, April 27th. They visited several college campuses including Auburn, Mobile, and Tuskegee Institutes.

Thursday evening the students attended a concert that featured Steve Alimo and Mitchell Trio. A dance was also held.

Forums were held Friday on "Drugs on Campus," "Freshman Orientation," and "Community Relations," and a panel discussion was presented by the students Saturday.

Friday evening, the group attended a banquet and the concert entertainment for this evening was Josh White, Your Father's Mustache Band, and The Wit's End Players from Atlanta.

Publications Banquet

On the evening of May 29 at 7 PM, members of the Montage, the college yearbook and the staff of the Sentinel, the college newspaper, will be entertained at a joint banquet being held at Squire's Restaurant. Guest speaker for the evening will be Terry Kay, entertainment editor for the Atlanta Journal. His topic will be "The Influence of Journalism on the Individual or How I left the farm."

Also attending the banquet will be Dr. Sturgis, President of Kennesaw Junior College; Dean Roberts, Dean of the College; Dean Mark Meadows, Dean of Students; Mrs. Mary Swain, faculty advisor to the Sentinel; Mr. David Jones, faculty advisor to the Montage; and Mr. Earl Calhoun, business advisor to the yearbook and the newspaper.
