The three "B's", Banks, Booker, and Bolton, were elected to the entertainment committee for Fall Quarter.

Benefit Carnival Planned For KJC

by Toni Clogston

Many people with chronic kidney failure die each year because of the lack of a dialysis machine. This machine, which is used to cleanse impurities from the blood stream, is so greatly in demand that people from as far away as Birmingham, Alabama must come once a week to Grady Memorial or Emory University Medical Center for a chance to live another week - another week of emotional drain and financial ruin.

To help alleviate the great shortage of these machines, Dr. Loenburg, a prominent kidney specialist, donated from his own funds a dialysis machine to Cobb General Hospital. He also has created a fund, in memory of his wife who died of kidney failure, to pay for the operation of these machines.

The student body of Kennesaw Junior College is doing its part to help people stay alive. We are having a campus carnival to contribute money for a dialysis machine. We will be working in conjunction with an outside club known as the Josephine Parker - Navy Wives of America, a charitable organization composed of wives of Navy and Marine personnel.

The carnival will be held November 26, 1973, from 12 noon until 2 p.m. and from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m. After the carnival the Odetta concert will be held in the gymnasium. The carnival will include car shows, a band, food booths, and other attractions.

The carnival is being sponsored by the Student Government with other campus organizations donating time and materials. The Sentinel will sponsor a cake walk and a kissing booth. God's Forever Family will have a "go-fishing" booth. PERM will co-ordinate games. The SGA will sponsor the food booths, and the Navy Wives Club will sponsor a "white elephant" sale. The Photography Club will be taking pictures for sale.

Any student who would like to help with the carnival should contact Kathy Sherlock in the SGA office or Toni Clogston in the Sentinel office.

The Entertainment Committee, consisting of James Banks in publicity, Gwynne Bolton as their agent, and Edna Booker as the committee mastermind, has just begun to fight. On November 5, 6, and 7, the Entertainment Committee will hold a survey to find out what the student body

Pre-Registration

Held Nov. 14-15

Pre-registration at KJC is scheduled for November 14 and 15 with an advisement period preceding it from today until November 13. The pre-registration will be held in the Student Services Building. The first session, from 9:00 to 11:30 on Wednesday, November 14, will be reserved for students registering two or more courses numbered 200 or above. Any student may pre-register from 1:00 to 3:00 on Wednesday and from 9:00 to 12:30 on Thursday. Evening students may also pre-register from 5:30 to 8:00 both nights.

On registration day, January 2, all pre-registered students will simply have to pick up their course cards, which will have been retained for them, and pay their fees. They will be guaranteed to get the classes they pre-registered for, unless a class is canceled. However, if they do not register during their scheduled time, their course cards will have been returned to the general pool, and those students must go through the whole registration process, with a good chance that their desired courses will not be available.

would like to see happen at Kennesaw Junior College.

The survey will give you a choice in the types of concerts you would prefer. Selections will include bluegrass, rock and roll, jazz, gospel, folk and so on and so forth. You will also be asked about any other activities you would like to have, such as picnics, trips, or a talent show.

The Entertainment Committee will begin to reload their ammunition as they attend a workshop held by the Georgia Tech Entertainment

Programmer, Jane Willey, to gain new knowledge and ideas from an experienced gunner. Our Entertainment Committee needs all the backing we students can give them, so get out there, support, and be surveyed.

Odetta Performs On Campus

On November 26, 1973, Odetta will be in concert on the Kennesaw Junior College Campus. The admission will be free to Kennesaw students, faculty, and their dates. For others who wish to attend, there will be tickets for sale at the door for $2.00. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m.

Odetta has appeared across the country and on nation-wide television. She has appeared twice in Atlanta at the Great Southeast Music Hall. Odetta's performance will consist primarily of folk-type music.

Are You Interested?

by Cheryl Manning

A short while ago, a poll was taken at KJC on a question of national importance. I was appalled at the lack of concern shown by some of the students interviewed.

The word apathy has been belabored to the point of meaninglessness. Perhaps stupidity is the better word. Let's face it, how the SGA spends your money may not be of any consequence to you. I can understand that feeling. After all - you won't be at KJC very long. However, to think that the actions of your local, state, and federal governments have no effect on you is the height of ignorance. Every day, laws and resolutions are passed and decisions made that may, even if they don't affect you now, have a great influence on your future. Can you afford to ignore this?

Here at KJC there are a great many opportunities to learn about the American system of government. There are, of course, the regular Political Science and Economics courses. Social Science lectures are often concerned with our democratic processes and current events, as are many of the speakers invited by individual clubs. These lectures are not dull or boring. They are provocative and relevant to you - today.

Participation in the Student Government and other organizations can be good practice for those who hope to influence future governmental action. Simply talking to some of the men and women here at Kennesaw who have had experience in politics and government is an education in itself.

Yes, we are only here at KJC for a short time. Let's take advantage of all that Kennesaw has to offer.

SGA Changes Voting Rights

by Toni Clogston

On November 2, a Student Government meeting was held in room 200 of the Social Science building concerning the newly proposed constitution designed by Tom Scott, the SGA faculty advisor. Article III of this new constitution, approved November 3, says "Upon registration in Kennesaw Junior College every student shall become a member of the Student Government Association, with the right to vote in elections of all officers and referendas, with the right to attend all meetings of the Association with privileges of the floor . . ." With privileges of the FLOOR only! We lose any and all rights to vote in the association meetings, held every Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. in the library seminar room. This means that we students, not senators or officers, will have to become lobbyists to have our voices heard. We will be unnecessary for anything after we approve this proposed constitution except to elect officers and vote in referendas. Are we going to stand for this to happen to our voting privileges and student rights? I hope that you students reading this will not let this happen!

We should all care about our school and its laws, because they affect us individually at one time or another. Please, this is your school, get interested. We cannot walk around with blinders surrounding our eyes and ignorance clouding our thoughts. Stand up and pay close attention, our rights nation, our rights depend on it.

Hang in there

by Kathy Sherlock

You - each and every student at Kennesaw, day or night student, HEAP, Special Studies, and students in the regular program are "Student Government." The Senators and Officers of the SGA are go-betweens for students - between you and what you need or want and faculty, administrators, staff - and the "real" world. We are here to work for you - We pass information down (or up) the line, we take on special projects, initiate the budget on Student Activity Fees (YOUR MONEY!). We get things done for you (ask David Fife about the electrical outlets in the gym - Dorothy Weaver about a way to school - students whose classes have been cancelled).

One of our special projects this year is Health Services, another is orientation and registration, another is club and organization recruitment, etc., etc.

Student Government officers, President - Kathy Sherlock, Vice-President - Eddie Jackson, Secretary - Margo Reynolds, and Treasurer - Jennifer Williams, sit on the Student Activities Committee with faculty and administrators - most of the discussion here is about your activity fees, i.e. where the money goes and to whom.

All the Senators and officers of Student Government are on the Student Affairs Council where policy decisions are made with regard to students. Last year we passed a grade appeal process which is now included in your new Rules and Regulations. This council decides whether or not we will be able to have a "Campus Carnival" on November 26, to raise money for the dialysis machine at Cobb General Hospital to help keep people with kidney disease alive.

The Student Government is a service organization which spends $2,500 per year of your student activity fees. Your job is to hold us responsible for that money by telling us what you want at KJC - to give us advice and suggestions and complaints.

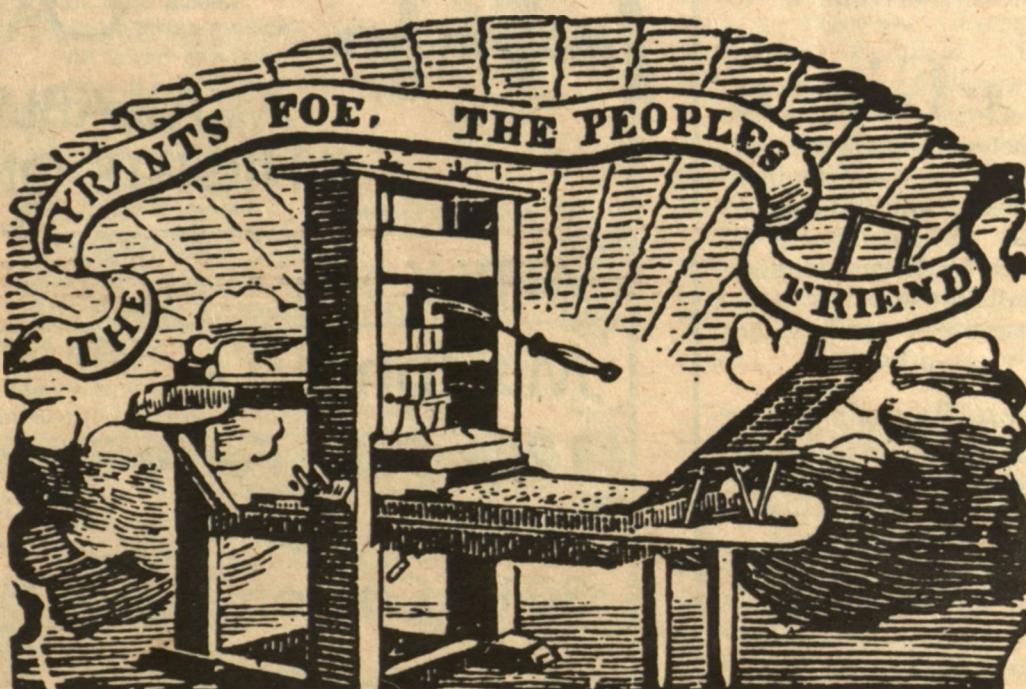

Sit down and think a minute! Don't you want everything here at KJC to be something special? Don't you want to be proud to tell people you went or go to KJC? Well, you're special to us and we're proud to work for you - Please, help us by doing whatever you can. Talk to each other, find out how your friends feel inside, sit down at a table with someone you don't know who is alone. A few new friends never hurt anybody - and come by the Student Government office - or stop us in the hall. Your SGA Senators are: Larry Hood, Maxine Saless, Jeff Jefferson, Davis Mayben, Randy White, Charlie Copeland, James Evans, Clarence George, Ed Hart, and Gary Riddle. WE NEED YOU!

THE OPINIONS EXPRESSED IN THE LETTERS TO THE EDITOR COLUMN ARE NOT NECESSARILY THOSE OF THE SENTINEL STAFF OR KENNESAW JUNIOR COLLEGE.

CONTRIBUTIONS ARE WELCOME. THEY SHOULD BE SHORT AND TO-THE-POINT AND SIGNED BY THE AUTHOR. THE EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL RETAINS THE RIGHT TO DETERMINE PUBLICATION OF ALL LETTERS.

Micki and Teddi to Spark KJC Forum

"Which Way, Ladies?" a direction-finding seminar for women, will be offered by Kennesaw Junior College and the South Cobb YWCA, November 15, at Cobb County Center auditorium from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

Sparking the session will be Mickie Silverstein and Teddi Levison, the first women ever to win the coveted George Foster Peabody Award for distinguished news reporting, the highest honor given in broadcasting.

Mickie and Teddi-both of whom are married and have children-appear regularly on a daily two-hour talk show on radio station WRNG in Atlanta. They are co-authors of a recently-released book, "Have You Had It In The Kitchen?"

Explored in the seminar will be many topics aimed at helping women find "where they're at" and where they want to go next. Audience questions and comments will be invited during the two-hour session.

Mickie and Teddi's dialogue will cover such topics as cutting the cord; assessing your abilities; if you can't find a job that suits you, invent one; selling yourself (or how to make little or no credentials look impressive); your appearance-get with it; don't feel guilty-you have nothing to apologize for.

How to keep friends without ever seeing them; a little dust under the carpet never hurt anyone; kids can be self-sufficient if you'll just let them; and more.

"Which Way, Ladies?" is a follow-up for two Job Clinics in Cobb County which drew more than 200 registrants during October. More detailed help for women will be offered, beginning in January, through the Community Services Office. Future women's programs at KJC will include job-finding workshops, counseling and refresher courses for women who want to go to work or back to school.

Registration for the November 15 seminar will begin at 11:30 a.m., and the fee is $1.00. No advance registration is required.

Credit Advice Given

Fred Tonney of the Georgia Consumer Credit Consumer Service spoke at the October 17 Student Government meeting on the purpose of the organization and gave advice on maintaining good credit.

The Counseling Service is supported by the business community and offers help to families or persons in financial trouble for very nominal fees. If a family is excessively in debt, Consumer Credit will try to persuade the creditors to accept longer term payments with lower individual payments, make the actual payments from the top of the family's paycheck, and propose a budget for the family to follow with the rest of its income. There is a charge for this service, but only if the family can afford it.

Tonney warned that bankruptcy is not an easy way out of debt. It is extremely difficult to regain credit after declaring bankruptcy, and many businesses who would not collect from a person because he filed bankruptcy will not make another loan to that person unless he agrees to assume his old one also.

Reverend Arthur Langford Speaks For Forum

by Larry Wilcox

The Reverend Arthur Langford, Jr., was the featured speaker for the Forum on Thursday, November 1, 1973 in the Library Seminar Room.

A 1967 graduate of Atlanta's Price High School, he continued his education by matriculating at Morris Brown College in Atlanta, graduating in 1971 with a degree in Political Science.

Active in the civic and social services arena, Rev. Langford, a Baptist minister, began his political career by serving as the first President of the Atlanta Youth Congress under the administration of former Atlanta Mayor, Ivan Allen, Jr.

Rev. Langford has served

Odetta is "Commanding"

"All too few performers have mastered that blend of showmanship, technique, and integrity that entitles them to call themselves artists . . . Odetta has proved beyond question the legitimacy of her claim to the title. (Boston Globe & Mail)

Showmanship...her majestic presence and personal responsiveness to her audiences; technique...her commanding control, rhythmic precision and subtlety of phrasing; integrity...what she terms "faithfulness" to her material. And all of it...the qualities which have established Odetta as one of the major legendary musical figures throughout the world.

Folk festivals, campus dates, club engagements and concert appearances throughout the world are a continual part of her activities. So are her overseas tours, including innumerable trips to Europe, Israel, and, most recently, Japan...her third visit to that country in four years. Just as continual is the extravagant praise she receives for her performances and the over fifteen outstanding albums which are cherished by her followers. Through work songs, Negro spirituals, blues, folk, children's songs, ballads . . . any music she loves . . . she wanders with infinite understanding, made more grand by her powerful resonance, extraordinary range and sincere emotional conviction. As Ralph Gleason of the San Francisco Chronicle has stated: "Her voice is an instrument which seems to have no limitations."

Odetta has been honored by audiences, critics and a coterie of young people to whom she has given a world of musical wealth. In recognition of her supreme importance in American music, she was bestowed with an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from the Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, North Carolina and was also invited to participate in the inaugural ceremonies of the refurbished Ford Theatre in Washington, D. C., where she appeared with such notable personalities as

Odetta hopes to go into areas sponsored by student newspapers and their editors, involving students in a gab fest after the concert.

This session will have to do, not just with music, but any and all things of the world we live in.

Recently, Odetta has added some new television credits to her many other activities, appearing on the Johnny Cash and Della Reese shows. She has also made multiple guest appearances on the Mike Douglas, Joey Bishop, and David Frost shows.

Music trends change. Odetta's superiority as an artist has withstood it all.

American Festival KJC Sponsored

(KJC-PIO) "Peron's Return and Other Fantasies" was one of several public lectures offered during a three-day Latin American Festival at Kennesaw Junior College.

Discussing Peron was Dr. S. Berggrun, professor of Spanish at Georgia State University and host of a Latin American show on educational television. His talk was held at noon Nov. 2 in the library seminar room.

The festival, coordinated by Spanish instructor Judy Myers and sponsored by the KJC International Club, coincided with an exchange of students between Georgia and Brazil.

Frances Browder, a KJC sophomore, left Oct. 30 for Pernambuco, Brazil, and a Brazilian student, Leila Bahia, of Recife, arrived in Atlanta Oct. 31 in conjunction with Governor Carter's Georgia Partners of the Americas, a cultural exchange program.

Other speakers in the Latin American Festival were Dr. Eugene Huck, Latin American scholar and Dean of Kennesaw Junior College, discussed "The Legacy of the Mexican Revolution." His speech began at 12 noon Oct. 31 in Humanities Room 200.

Park Renshaw, professor of sociology and Portuguese at West Georgia College, spoke on "Brazil" at 1 p.m. in the library seminar room Nov. 1. Accompanying Prof. Renshaw was Geraldo Semenzato, a Brazilian exchange professor who teaches history at West Georgia.

Student Nurses

Post Activities

by Nancy Wiseman

SNAK is still at work to produce bigger and better things at Kennesaw this year!

One of the many activities scheduled for November is a workshop on "VD Education." Each school in the state of Georgia is encouraged to set up their own individual workshops. The Kennesaw workshop will take place on Monday, November 12, in Humanities Room 202, at 12 noon. The guest speaker will be Dr. Ralph Henderson of the Center for Disease Control. The material presented should give information and incentive to aid local groups to start related programs in their respective communities. The workshop is open to ALL students on campus. Please try to attend!

SNAK held its latest meeting on November 5 at 12 noon in the Library Seminar Room. The Health Fair was discussed and various committees set up for the program. Participation is greatly needed for this program to be successful. The VD workshop will also be discussed. New SNAK members will discuss their membership procedure for the coming year.

The 1973-74 annual convention of the Student Nurses' Association of Georgia will be February 7, 8, 9, and 10 in Macon, with headquarters at the Macon Hilton Hotel. The theme this year centers around Community Health. Jack Watson, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Human Resources in Georgia will speak on current and projected activities designed to meet the health needs of the people of Georgia and how nursing is involved in these programs.

The days of April 25-28, 1974, mark the dates of the annual National Student Nurses Association Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah. Each organization of SNA throughout the United States will send delegates to the convention. Kennesaw will participate again this year.

A member of the executive board of SNAG (Student Nurses Association of Georgia) will visit each school to talk to nursing students and answer any questions they may have regarding the association.

Let's get busy and get Kennesaw on the go!

MAKE A NOTE

The Psychic Experience

by Barbara Greenlaw

How many of you have heard footsteps on the stairs and laughter when there was no one there? That's what this section is all about; ghosts, or, if you like, unexplainable phenomena. I'd like to hear about your experiences.

I have had my fair share of psychic experiences. I'd like to relate one to you now.

The first of several "unexplainable phenomena" happened to me at Leysis American School in Switzerland. For those of you who believe, the school was haunted. It was an old tuberculosis hospital that has been transformed into a school.

My room was definitely haunted.

The first meeting with our ghost occurred late one night. My roommate and I were sitting in our room. I was playing quietly on my guitar, and she was reading.

I couldn't see my bed from where I was sitting, but I could see a reflection of it in the French doors that went out to our balcony. After I'd finished some sad tune, I looked out at the balcony. I could see in the reflection that someone was sitting on my bed. I asked my roommate to look. She saw her too. I got up to find out who it was. There was no one on my bed. I looked back at the French doors. She was gone.

I can to this day still recall the long, dark hair and pale, sorrowful face. I later learned from a book by D. E. Ellis, The Rack, that a girl had jumped from the fourth floor balcony to her death, because she could stand the pain no longer.

This was the only time I ever saw her, but it wasn't the last time I heard from her. She manifested herself other ways, but those are different stories.

Ed. Note: Please write up your experience and put it in the Sentinel mailbox in the Student Services Building. Also, please sign all contributions to give author credit.

Witches Hunted On Campus

On Wednesday, October 23, Dr. Gird Romer presented a lecture on "Medieval Witch Persecution as a part of the Humanities Lecture Series.

Dr. Romer said that the idea of evil witches was conceived as the Roman Catholic church attempted to discredit pagan gods and combat heresy in Christian countries. The great witch hunts of the Middle Ages were so widespread because of the great fear of the unknown felt by the majority of the population and the need to place blame for unexplained disasters such as the death of a cow or even the bubonic plague.

In explaining the relationship between his topic and the world today, Dr. Romer noted that although modern society does not persecute "witches," such phenomena as the Red Scare, McCarthyism, and Hitlerism were products of the same "Human propensity to unreasoning fear" that made the medieval persecutions possible. He warned that only a deliberate use of calm reasoning could prevent the recurrence of "witch hunts" today.

The Humanities Lecture series will continue on November 14, with a lecture by Dr. Virginia Hinton, associate professor of English at KJC. The lecture, Women in Education, will be held at noon in the Library Seminar room.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

The women's intramural program has become less structured with the main emphasis placed on having fun. It is no longer necessary to be a member of a team in order to participate. Girls interested in playing volleyball must simply show up at the gym on Mondays at 3:00, divide up into teams, and play.

Powder puff flag football games are scheduled for Wednesdays at 3:00 with the same player eligibility requirements as volleyball.

A coed volleyball tournament is scheduled for November 7. Any KJC student, club, or organization may enter a team by turning in a list of at least six players to the gymnasium office or to Coach Blumenthal or Jim Cantrell. The team must have a one to one ratio of males to females.

Action In Intramural Football

Cudacocks Chasing Roadrunners

The standings in intramural football have the Roadrunners in first place, and the Cudacocks in second. The Cheetahs came in third, the Pumas in fourth, and the Apes in last. The Gamecocks team disbanded, because of a lack of people to play. They combined with the Barracudas and are now known as the Cudacocks.

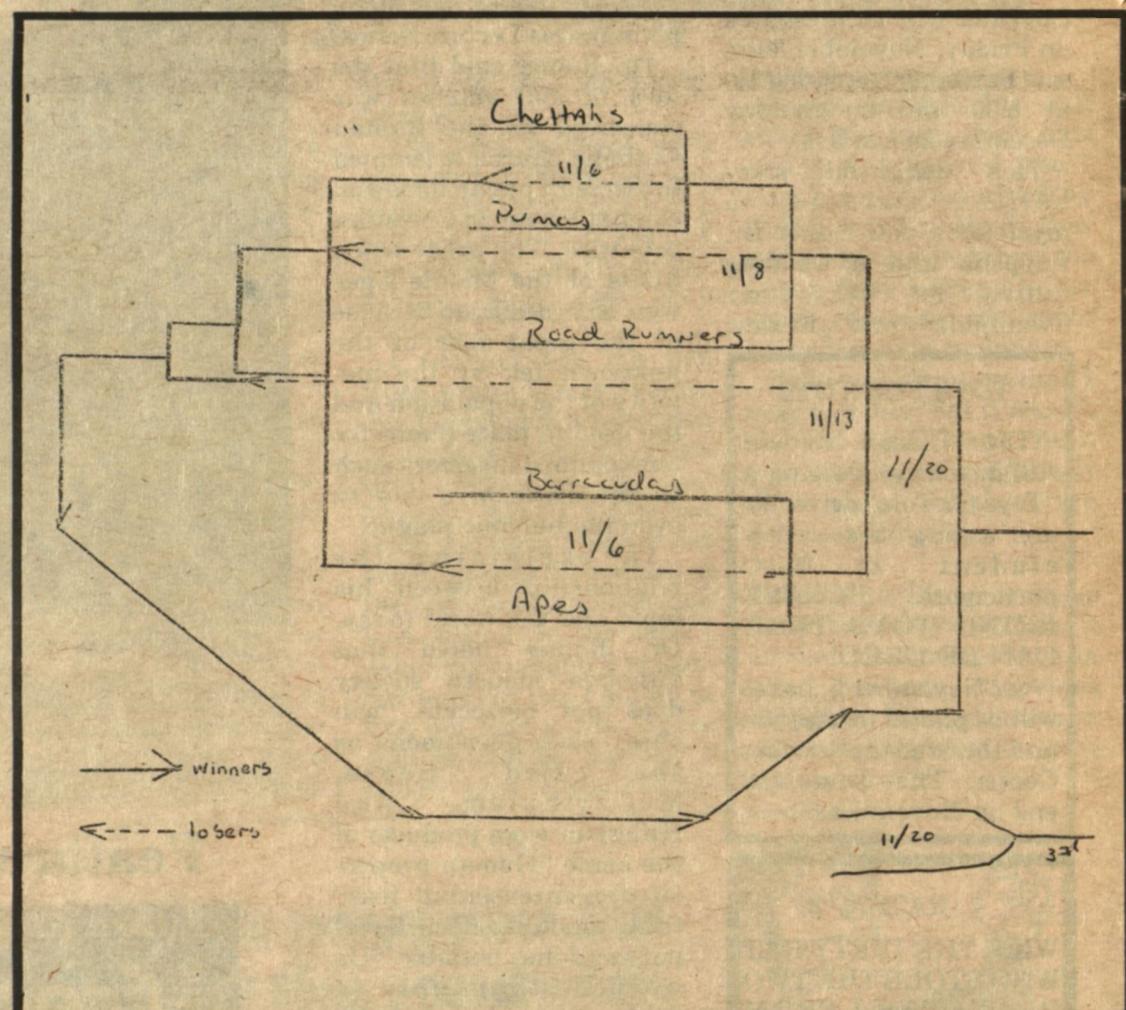

The Cudacocks defeated the Cheetahs by a score of 12 to 6. Steve Hardman scored two touchdowns for the Cudacocks. The Roadrunners defeated the Apes 21-0. They had touchdowns by Benny Green, Wendell Porter, and Robert Payne.

WHAT

The Cudacocks again defeated the Cheetahs 11 to 6. The Cheetahs tied the Pumas 12 to 12. Vernon Maddox scored two touchdowns for the Cheetahs, and Randy Waddle and Dennis Urghart scored for the Pumas. The Pumas fell into the hands of the Roadrunners 34 to 6. Larry Williams got his first touchdown after several frustrating tries.

The Cheetahs skunked the Apes 6 to 0. Vernon Maddox scored the Cheetahs touchdown. The Cudacocks defeated the Apes 7 to 6. David Barksdale caught a pass for the extra point that gave the Cudacocks a victory over the Apes. Steve Hardman scored for the Cudacocks. Gary Secrest scored for the Apes.

The five intramural football teams are having a double elimination tournament starting Tuesday, November 5.

KJC Predicts

The prediction staff again had a good week. The top predictors were Dr. Romer and Renee Matherne who had a seven and one record. Dr. Romer is still the top predictor with an overall record of twelve and one.

Due to the light college schedule this week, we are predicting three pro games. They are: Cleveland and Oakland, St. Louis and the New York Giants, and the Falcons and the Minnesota Vikings. College games are: Alabama and Miami, Auburn and Georgia, Florida and Kentucky, LSU and Mississippi State, and Tennessee and Mississippi.
