

R O T CGive it a Look

Looking for an education in order to get a good job? Don't forget employers also want people with experience. If you have an Army commission you not only have experience to back up your resume you also have something else employer's want-- training in leadership techniques and management principles.

At Southern Tech you have the ability to receive a commission through the Army ROTC Program. In addition, you have a choice of five branches in which you can receive your commission: Engineers, Ordnance, Signal, Air Defense Artillery, and Infantry--it's your choice.

If you are a little doubtful if you would like Army ROTC find out. You can take the first two years without any obligation. You do not incur any obligation until you apply for the last two years. Just what is your obligation should you decide to continue? Cadets who enter the last 2 years of the program are obligated for 2 years of active duty but many who desire to do so serve on active duty for only 90 days.

It is also possible to complete Army ROTC in three years or less so don't think you are too late if you are a sophomore. Army ROTC cadets receive $100 a month during their junior and senior years and every cadet has the opportunity to compete for a full scholarship once he or she is in the program.

Get some facts. Army ROTC is not for everyone but before you decide if it is for you, get some facts. See one of the STI students that are enrolled or see Major Laurence in Room 402 Elect. Bldg. or call 894-4760 and see what's in Army ROTC for you.

MINORITY?

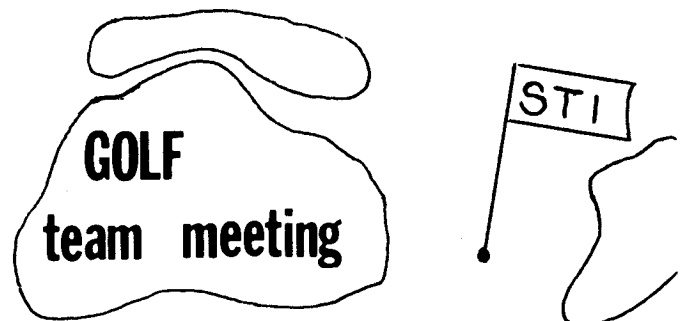

In an effort to expose minority students, their counselors and concerned industry leaders to engineering technology and Southern Technical Institute, the Minority and Female Consortium of Southern Tech will hold a seminar on the campus, Wednesday, February 5.

Over 500 persons, half of them black and female students, are expected to attend the day long seminar whose theme is "Let's change Rhetoric to Reality."

According to Emerelle M. Glover, STI's Director of Financial Aid and Minority Affairs and a member of the consortium, the group hopes to better familiarize high school counselors with engineering technology and Southern Tech.

Mrs. Glover said that the high school mathematics and science teachers and counselors are the key to influencing likely candidates into the engineering technology profession.

The seminar will begin at 9 a.m. with a welcome by STI Dean, Dr. Walter O. Carlson. The chairman of the consortium is Terry McCready, employment manager of the Atlanta Gas Light, who will give a progress report on the consortium's effort to attract minorities and females to the campus.

Anyone interested come to the Gym on Thursday, January 30th, at 5:00.

SGA

The SGA met last Wed. in the Seminar room and was presented with the results of two significant projects. The results of the night school students survey have been tabulated and is ready for release. Also a report in Booklet form, "Southern Tech Faculty Salaries--An Urgent Need," prepared by SGA and faculty member was presented.

The report consisted of facts, figures, and graphs comparing faculty salaries of all schools in the University System. It described page after page how underpaid the fine faculty we have, actually is. Jim Axley reported we had hand-delivered the booklet to Dr. Pettit, Chancellor Simpson, Governor Busbee, and various legislators.

A resolution was passed requesting the administration to levy upon the SGA the responsibility of designing a system of efficient procedure for registration.

It was not surprising to learn that the goat shed felt this quarter's registration had gone well. It is apparent the administration is content with the inefficient and inept procedures it has followed in passed years--typical---

DEAN RUSK to speak at STI

Former Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who is now Sibley Professor of International Law at the University of Georgia, will be the guest speaker for Southern Tech's third Community Dialogue on Jan. 30. The public is invited to hear Mr. Rusk in the Seminar Room of the Library beginning at 8 p.m.

A former Rhodes Scholar, his subject will be "Ethics and Freedom in Tomorrow's World." Born in Cherokee County, Georgia, Mr. Rusk received his undergraduate degree at Davidson College in North Carolina. He later received BA and MA degrees at St. John's College, Oxford. He also served at Professor of Political Science and Dean of the Faculty at Mills College.

Dr. Robert Fischer, head of Southern Tech's English and Social Studies Department, says the purpose of the dialogue series is to stimulate adults to answer two basic questions raised by technology: "Where are we going in a technical society and what kind of community do we want locally, nationally, and world-wide?"

STI Defeats Berry

The STI cagers rolled past a stubborn Berry College team in a home game last Jan. 20. Providing the margin for the win was Alan Kemp (19), Randy Hunter (23), Anthony Lowdenback (15), and Mike Braun (12).

Coach Florian seemed pleased with the team's effort stating that "they played smarter basketball" than in past games. He also added the "inside game" was a major factor as they out-rebounded their opponents 61-26.

is supported by the 86% charity line efficiency as Kemp and Hunter completed 11 of 12 attempts and Braun 10 of 10.

WRESTLING

The STI grabblers, traveling to Swannee Tenn., spotted the University of South wrestlers 12 points which proved to be the margin of their defeat. Forfeiting the 150 and 160 pound weight class because of injuries, Coach John Martin stated, "it's a shame to lose when in actuality we soundly beat them." Coach Martin had high praise for all of his wrestlers, especially John Reed who pinned his opponent in 33 seconds, and Larry Bone, who has a good chance of being top-seeded in the S.E.I.W.A. Tournament to be held here next month.

Results:

- 118 lb - Clarence Presha (S) dec. Mike Schettino(STI) (8-5)
- 126 lb - John Reed (STI) pinned Dave Fleming (S) (0:33)

- 190 lb - Mike Speed(STI) dec. Kevin Marchetti(S) (3:10)
- UNL - T.R.Perry(STI) dec. Bill Jordan (S) (7-5)

INTRAMURALS

The intramural basketball schedule has been revised due to the withdrawal of the Venezuelan(Camel Jocks)team. All coaches should see that their players are aware of the new dates.

In last weeks top games Sigma Pi remained undefeated in a 54-31 win over AIA. Leading Pi's attack, that saw every player scoring, was Bruce Weekley and Ed Dzieryzonski with 20 and 16 points respective.

In the other top game of the week, Delta Phi(Gold) jumped to an early 10 point lead over the Black Student's Assoc., only to
