If you have friends or relatives overseas who'd like to study in the United States, you can be their "passport" if they lack English skills. How? Just give us their names and addresses. We'll give them complete information about our English-language training programs and—in your name—provide a $50 tuition discount certificate. ELS counselors in 52 countries help qualified students enroll in American universities, obtain visas, arrange housing, and help with travel.

ELS is America's leading intensive English program, with 20 schools throughout the U.S. We've served more than 230,000 students from around the world; over 300 American colleges and universities accept ELS's proficiency recommendation as an alternative to the TOEFL.
