

Illustrations help bring the stories in books to life! Use one of these descriptions from a book to draw your own illustrations and we'll feature your drawing in Babar's Gallery!

"One summer morning the gardener arrived early. He found the shrubs and vegetables quarreling and making a great to-do."

"Jack stole softly into the room where the giant was snoring, fast asleep, and began to pull away the boots very quietly indeed."