May Day Festival A Gala Affair

Never before in the school's history has such performances been presented at a May Day celebration, as those rendered on the campus Friday afternoon, May 6, before a huge crowd of spectators.

The exercises began with the Queen and her Maids, floating across the field to meet the King and attendants at the throne. There they were crowned and seated, amidst an outburst of applause, to watch their royal subjects celebrate the occasion.

Dances, drills, marches and all types of entertainment representing many nationalities were high-lighted features of the day.

Among the numbers presented by the Elementary Department were the beautiful Hawaiian, Holland and Mexican Folk Dances. From the High School came the well directed athletic drill, Cowboys of the West, and the "Big Apple" dance.

Winners of the track meeting were

The Year's Achievement

Let us pause for a moment to give a retrospective view of the accomplishments that have been made during the school year of 1948 and 1949.

May we congratulate the Student Council and President Moss, for making our school a better place in which to dwell. The halls are so quiet and the rest rooms are so clean, that it seems as if the transition is an illusion. Though the corridors are still minus the vending machines for candy and drinks, maybe they'll be forthcoming next term.

To top the good deeds the Council also planted rose bushes in front of the school as a memorial to the girl's basketball team and the boy's football team, having made such a wonderful record for the Lemon Street High School.

In behalf of the "Hornet's Staff, we have enjoyed publishing our paper, so that the news of the school could reach the far corners of the immediate and surrounding communities. Thus we close the year and hope to present you with "More and better reading next year."—George Carter, Editor-in-Chief.

Farewell Words

May 27, needless to say, is that final day to which we have so patiently looked forward for so many months. Its arrival will bring sorrow to a few, happiness to many, and to others only an attitude of indifference. Those whose faces portray sadness, will see the word "detained" on their report cards, and perhaps you'll detect a tear-drop or so streaming from the eyes.

Again, those whose facial expression registers joy will be the ones who have reaped the harvest, and their cards gleam with the words "promoted". It is probable that the indifferent ones will wander around during the vacation days with no future outlook on life, or will, perhaps, repeat the marriage vows, forgetting school completely.

Let me admonish each student that our school days are our best days, and if we heed not the call of learning and intelligence in our early years, the opportunity may never present itself again. Why not attempt to make the most of it now?

I must wish you a happy vacation, and may we return next year with more determination, ambition, and enthusiasm than ever before.—George Dodd, Associate Editor.

Reviewing the School Year

As coach and head of the Science Department of Lemon Street High School, I would like to share with you my first year's experience in this school.

School opened September 1, 1948. After making acquaintances, followed by registration, our work began with each student eager and anxious to gain unknown knowledge, plus broadening old experiences.

A week later, the training season for football began, and the boys assured me their fullest cooperation. They were loyal to their word for the season ended with an undefeated squad.

Immediately after Christmas basketball got underway. The boys were my responsibility, but sorry to relate, the boy's basketball team was unlucky so far as winning all games played, but they fought well and were victorious in most of them.

Football and basketball have been successful, because the boys and girls possessed a strong determination and will-power to do, and failed to stop until this mission was accomplished.

My last words to you for this school year are: "I have enjoyed working with you, as an instructor and coach, and hope for you a brighter and happier tomorrow."

Mr. T. B. Wilson, Instructor.

The Things That Count

Not what we have, but what we use,
Not what we see, but what we choose.
These are the things that mar or bless,
The sum of human happiness.

The things nearby, not things afar,
Not what we seem, but what we are.
These are the things that make or break,

That give the heart its joy or ache.

Not what seems fair, but what is true,
Not what we dream, but what we do.
These are the things that shine like
gems,
Like stars of fortunes diadems.

Not what we take, but what we give,
Not as we pray, but as we live.
These are the things that make for peace,
Both now and after time shall cease.

Mrs. L. J. Phillips,
Teacher

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM CLOSES 1948-49 SEASON WITHOUT DEFEAT

Principal Woods, the faculty and friends, wish to congratulate Coach Hill and the girl's team for staging such a victorious year in basketball. These Hornets have held the championship title for a number of years, and have outsmarted such rough and tough teams as Calhoun, Rockmart, Cedartown, and Cartersville.

Not only were the Lemon High girls undefeated in their own conference, but were invited to participate in the Georgia State Tournament, and succeeded in winning third place with the Class A teams.

When the trophies from both the Regional and State Tournaments were presented to the school, the auditorium was a blast of spontaneous applause, and everybody was delighted and happy.

Due to graduation, the team regrets to lose Capt. LaVerne Woods (guard), Clara Bell Dinsmore (forward), and Frances James (guard), but it is hoped that the new team will be enveloped with the same unique winning ability, imitating the techniques previously used to win all games in the future.

Again we say, "Hurrah! Hurrah! Cheers for Coach Hill and the team of 1949!"

Lemon High Boys Defeated In Semi-Finals

The Lemon Street High Hornets who have won the trophy for first place in basketball for several years, were defeated in the semi-finals for the first time since 1943 by Cedartown. Though the title was lost, the team went down fighting. Edwin Dyer was presented a trophy for making the highest number of points.

Mack Eppinger and Raymond Moss, who are Seniors, have put up their last fight for the Hornets and played their last game of the year at Georgia State Tournament which was held at Savannah, Georgia.

Other outstanding players are Alphonso Carter, Herbert Porter, Kenneth Carter, Joe Strickland and Leroy Scott.

Praise For Coaches

Coaches R. Hill and T. B. Wilson deserve much praise for having guided both the girls' and boys' teams through a successful year of clean and competitive sports. We wish them even greater victories in the future.

Lemon High Girls Capture Finals

Before a record breaking crowd, the Lemon High Hornets, with their fast and furious action, brought the bacon home from the North Georgia Conference Basketball Tournament which was staged in the Cartersville Gymnasium.

After winning two elimination victories they moved to win the finals. Facing the hard fighting Cartersville Devilettes, the Hornets bit their lips and proceeded to play with caution.

During the first quarter, the Lemon High girls were ahead by a score of 10-12. Evelyn Bates, the shooting star, seemed to be off guard, but Margaret Jefferson stepped in with full force and major support. Later in the second quarter, Cartersville's girls began their big rally, with Thelma Washington making a deadlock score of 18-18. Then more fast moving action and at the half the board showed Lemon High in the lead with 23-18.

In the second half, the Devilettes really began to rally, when Frankie Wheeler and Annie Mae Wheeler began to push hard and throughout the first quarter of the half the score remained tied.

Now momentous speed began in the last quarter when Evelyn Bates, Margaret Jefferson and Clara Bell Dinsmore, Lemon's great forwards, began to put on their pivot show, with Evelyn Bates, the leading star. The scores increasing to 23-25 in favor of the Hornets. With only minutes and seconds to play, Washington put Cartersville back in the game and that was trouble for the Hornets. But Lemon's own Jefferson pushed forward to make two baskets, assisted by Bates two baskets, totaling the score 34-31 honoring Lemon Street High School with the trophy for having won wirst place.

Outstanding players for Lemon are: Bates, Woods, Dinsmore, Tillman and Eppinger.

Carter Captures Fly-Weight Title

Kenneth Carter a ninth grade student of Lemon Street High fought three difficult bouts in the Butler Street Y. M. C. A. Boxing Tournament March 22, 23, 24. After winning two unanimous decisions over Kenny Williams, James Marshall, and a first round knockout over James Dunn, Carter was declared the Fly-Weight Champion of Atlanta and Marietta, Georgia.

Hornets Football Spring Practice Begins

Coach Wilson and his football squad trek out each afternoon to the gridiron for spring practice, which is the first of its kind.

The team looks prosperous with 27 heavyweight muscular boys, all eager to attack next year's opponents.

Captain Moss (fullback) and Mack Eppinger (center) who are seniors, will be greatly missed from their positions in the future games, but Walter Bates and Willie Gresham are expected to step into Moss' and Eppinger's shoes with confidence.

8th Grade B Tops Honor List With 22

TENTH GRADE RUNS SECOND WITH 12

Another important congratulation is now in order for the Eighth B class, for having the largest number of honor students ever to be represented from one class before. Tenth grade is second with 12. The Eleventh and Ninth Grades tie with a score of 7, while Eighth A creeps closely with 5. A feeling of pride wells up into the hearts of each high school teacher as he or she views her handiwork.

These students have wrought well, and have honestly and truly earned this top-ranking recognition.

CLASS NEWS

FIRST GRADE A

The Thrift Club has saved $10.00 in U. S. Defense Stamps. Harold Adams, Leon Grogan, Wilbur White and Joe Williams are in the lead in their albums.

This we deem to be a desirable habit to become fixed in early childhood. "He that buys what he does not need will often need what he cannot buy." B. Franklin.

The kiddies really enjoyed Mr. Bunny's visit to their Easter Party. Now back to the three R's.

Mrs. Louella Patterson,
Teacher

FIRST GRADE B

With spring in the air, and the happy Easter Season over, we are hard at work again making preparations to begin our last six weeks term in first grade.

After having much fun, and studying hard, we are now looking forward to June and promotion.

Most of our little friends who started with us are still here, but we miss those who have gone especially Sammie and Shirley Farmer, who are making their homes in Florida.

Our attendance has been good, because of the immunization program last year for pre-school children, and there have been fewer absences due to whooping cough, measles and the usual childhood diseases.

Come in to visit our classroom to see us at work and play.

Mrs. A. M. Edwards,
Teacher.

SECOND GRADE A

Here we are to greet you again, acknowledging our progress made in the past few months. We are now enjoying our unit on "The Family".

In a few weeks our work will be completed and then the curtains will fall on another school year.

We gave a delightful Easter Egg Hunt in our class room before going home for the Spring Holidays. After

We are proud to know our three class-mates who were promoted to third grade in the middle of the term are doing excellent work.

So goodbye for now, and we'll see you again next year.

Mrs. E. T. Watson,
Teacher

GRADES SECOND AND THIRD B

Grades 2nd and 3rd B have worked diligently this year to put over their program. We have cooperated in every effort. Now we are going into the homestretch, and looking forward to the closing events.

Second B is making health folders of which they are very proud. Their work books show in many instances thoughtful and careful work.

Third B is cultivating a cotton field, weaving, and building a chart as culminating activities to their clothing unit.

Gee, but we are glad spring is here and we see it everywhere. Have you seen our strong tomato plants growing in the south window? Soon they will be in our own back yards. It will be fun to go out and pick a tomato. Yum, Yum!

Many of our classmates are ill. Here's hoping they will soon recover.

Miss C. L. Pinkney,
Teacher.

3rd GRADE C AND 4th B

Since spring arrived, grades 3-C and 4-B have begun a study of nature. They are especially interested in birds. The classes are competing to see how many birds each can identify. A prize will be awarded to the class identifying the largest number of birds.

Miss E. G. Beavers,
Teacher.

Ninth Grade

The Ninth grade of 1948-49 with its 16 girls and 16 boys has itself through another term of useful work, under the guidance of our teacher, Miss E. M. Hill. She has produced such all round students as Dorothy Milsap, Leander Newton, Larry Stiles, Ruby Bryant and others.

The class predicts its winning ability in a competitive game of soft ball with the 8th grade.

Reporters,
Kenneth Carter
Leander Newton
Miss E. M. Hill, Instructor.

Tenth Grade

As the school year nears its close, the Tenth grade class can enthusiastically say, "We have completed a very successful and progressive term."

It is with great pride that we boast of our success in the "Lemon Street High" Contest, which terminated with the crowning of Miss Hazel Emerson, as queen.

Good luck to every one during your vacation. See you next school term!

Mamie Hutson, Reporter.
Miss E. M. Phillis, Instructor.

Eleventh Grade

Farewell, dear Teachers, Schoolmates and Friends! We as Seniors of Lemon Street High School are walking our last mile. A note of sadness creeps o'er us as our thoughts wander to that departing hour.

To know that LaVerne Woods and Clara Belle Dinsmore (a forward) and guard, respectively, who have been the backbones of the basketball team, and were instrumental in helping the team to become undefeated throughout the season, makes our chests stand out with pride. Do you notice the smiles on our faces?

Climaxing all events of the school term, the Seniors under the guidance of Mrs. H. Banks, Home Economics teacher, entertained the High School faculty with a luncheon, which was second to none ever served in the school. The setting was beautiful, with gleaming white tablecloths and lovely flowers. The menu consisted of

- Apple Juice
- Fried Chicken
- French Fried Potatoes, Peas & Carrots
- Tomato Salad
- Rolls
- Banana Pudding
- Iced Tea

We hope the faculty shall ever remember the class of '49.

Jennie Hill, Reporter
Mrs. M. Fredd, Advisor.

Fourth A

After a grand and glorious Easter Holiday season we have returned in full swing to complete the remaining weeks of school, and looking forward to a successful closing.

It is so wonderful to welcome our teacher back after an illness of three weeks. We wish to thank everyone for being so nice to her and us during her absence.

Miss Dabney, Teacher.
Ernestine Slade, Reporter.

Fifth A

The 5th A has returned from the Easter Holidays ready for hard study.

Each student looks forward to being promoted.

May we wish all a safe, healthy and enjoyable summer vacation.

Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Teacher.
Sandra Jackson, Reporter.

Fifth and Sixth B

The classes 5th and 6th B are improving on the Ivory Inspection Patrol. We are very proud of our inspection chart. The classes are divided into groups, namely, "The Marines", "The Air Corps", "The Policemen", "The Policewomen", and "The Nurses."

The group collecting the largest number of Ivory Bars will be awarded a gift. Each class is striving hard towards the winning goal.

Mrs. E. Jackson, Teacher.

Sixth A

After returning from the most delightful Spring Holidays, we climaxed the Easter season with a wonderful egg hunt.

You can imagine our joy to have two winners from our class in the "Safety Contest." They were Laurine Whitehead, first prize, and Louise Dunson, second prize.

The class still mourns the loss of a fine classmate, Miss Jean Elizabeth Gresham, who departed this life, Thursday, April 7, after a three weeks' illness. She was loved by classmates, teachers and all of her friends.

We wish you all a happy summer vacation.

Mrs. L. J. Phillips, Teacher.
Betty Ann Evans, Reporter.

Seventh A

The Seventh A class has been busily engaged in various activities since spring began. The boys made bird houses and placed them in trees. We have also read many stories about birds and their habits. A large bird chart is used as visual aid in studying birds.

Our Spelling Bee was quite an interesting project. Most of us spelled well, but the winners were Fred Ralston and Lois Dodd. Prizes were awarded.

Recently we completed two units of work: Meat Packing and the Production of Silk. Both were quite interesting.

We are now planning a Spring Concert.

Mrs. E. B. Hill, Teacher.

The State G. T. E. A. met April 14 and 15 in the historic city of Augusta, Georgia. The city was host to a large and enthusiastic delegation.

Much was accomplished which we feel sure will be quite beneficial to the educational system of the State at large. Those who failed to attend missed a rare treat, for we were royally entertained.

Some of the high lights of the meeting were the panel discussion, the Ruth Stewart Concert, and the dynamic and informative closing address by Hon. Thurgood Marshall, Attorney for the National Association For Advancement of Colored People.
