DECEMBER. 21

SC # New 50.9

The Printer finds himfelf under the difagree-able neceflity of fulpending his publications on TUESDAYS, until the prefent difgraceful pro-fecution againit aim of account of the freedom of the preis, is decided by an impartial, unpack-dury—when he pubpoles to refume them. Notwithfladding the provoking, unufual, and arbitrary Reps which his KNOWN profecutors have adopted to feed the vengeance of party and faction—practices which thidermine the conflitu-tion and deftroy the great bulwark of freedom. The LIBERTY OF THE PRESS, he ftill hopes to furnithing them in luture with a weekly publica-tion as formerly :-- and may the freemen of Penn-tylvania enjoy the ineflimable blefling of a FREE PRESS, uncontaminated by malice or defpotim, when the infumous numes of PERSECUTORS shall "tink in the very noitrils of policeity."

TWO TRACTS of LAND, adjoining each other finated in the couty of Philadelphia, in the townthip of Hortham, 19 miles from the city, being the greater part of that highly improved Farm, known by the name of Orzeme Park, formerly the property of DoClor Grame, decealed, and by him deviled to his daughter, the fubferiber, in whom the title is allo verted by an add of the honourable the legiflature of this face.

title is allo velted by an ad of the honourable the legiflature of this fate. Trad No. 1. Contains 160 acres of excellent Land, on which are 75 acres of the beft timber, and 20 acres of improv-ed meadow. This land has been highly manured with lime and dung, and hasproduced upwards of twenty bulhels of wheat per acres. There are on the premifes four fprings of fine water, fufficient to turn a mill, and a branch of Nedhaminy runs through the tradt. It is four miles from Neihaminy Meeting-haufe, and three from Hortham. No. 2. Contains about 200 acres of good land, 55 acres of which are allo of the beft timber, and 15 acres more may be had if required. This tradt opens on the line that divides Philadelphia from Buckscounty, a much frequented road, and allo on another road called Dyr's road. There is an orchard of fine grafted fruit and fome meadow on No. 2, and it lies convenient for dividing into fmall Lots (if the purchafer thould think proper) ro fuit mechanics or fmall farmers, as its join-ing on two public roads gives it a peculiar conveniency for that purpole.

ing on two public roads gives it a peculiar conveniency for that purpole. As an inducement for any one perfor to purchafe both trafts, the ufe of a large farm houfe and an excellent harn, adjoining the premifes, for one year, azNT FAZZ, thall be allowed the purchafer, in which time he may ereft proper buildings on the purchafe to fuit bia own conveniency, but this privilege caa-not be allowed to the purchafer of either traft feparately. The tenant now on the premifes has a winter crop in the ground, which he has the permiflon to reap and carry off. The purchafe money, in cafe both Lots are fold, muft be paid, one third in hand and good fecurity for the reft, in two yearly payments, with intereft. An indiputable title will be given by the fubferiber, on receipt of the first payment and good fecurity for the refugue.

For terms of fale apply to Doctor WILLIAM SMITH, GEORGE MEADE. ASHET'ON HUMPHREYS, or the fubfcriber on the premifes.
