STUDENT CENTER FOR STI

Upon entering the campus of Southern Technical Institute in Marietta a year and a half from now, the first building visible from the main entrance will be a new student center.

A $1.05 million contract for construction was awarded March 18 by the Georgia State and Investment Commission to the William J. Black Construction Company of Atlanta. Construction of the 36,000 square foot facility is expected to take about 14-16 months.

When completed, Southern Tech's first student center in the 27-year history of its existence will be a focal point for student life on the campus, according to Aeck Associates, architects of the center.

Students, faculty and college officials agree that the student center will be the start of a new era for the college.

Dr. Walter O. Carlson, Dean of Southern Technical Institute, says the building is indicative of a new, campus-oriented trend at Southern Tech that began when the college converted to a four-year institution in 1970.

The student center will house a cafeteria, recreation and lounge areas, student organization offices, art and (continued next page) music rooms and a meeting room able to seat 500 persons.

The center's design will include staggered glass walls around the parallelogram-shaped building. It will be a concrete and brick structure with aerial bridges and a skylighted lobby.

Guest speakers for the groundbreaking ceremonies were James D. Maddox of Rome, a member of the Board of Regents from the seventh district, Dr. George L. Simpson, Jr., Chancellor of the University System of Georgia, Dr. Joseph M. Pettit, President of Ga. Tech and James E. Axley, President of the Southern Tech Student Government Association. Presiding was Dr. Carlson, Dean of Southern Tech. Invited were also representatives of community and civic organizations in Cobb, members of the Cobb County legislative delegation, other local political and business leaders, educators, members of the Board of Regents and some members of the chancellor's staff.

FM

WSTB during the past year has expanded services in an effort to better serve the Southern Tech student and to prepare to add the entire city of Marietta to the service area through the forthcoming FM Station - WGHR. To meet these needs a complete news and public affairs staff has been added to cover events of Southern Tech and the surrounding Communities. Broadcast news director Morgan Mitchell sorts and edits the news obtained from the associated press and from his four news correspondents. They are: Mike Pitcher - Campus organization news; Bill Barrett - City of Marietta, and News Commentator; David Baity - Campus News; and Carson Lee - public affairs.

WSTB will continue to offer the best in special programming through the efforts of Chris Stevens, the concert producer. In the past, Chris has presented the complete concert for Bangla Desh, along with a special 2 hour Rolling Stones concert. Future programs include an exclusive interview/musid show entitled "The Beatles Story" and a one hour program featuring interviews with Led Zeppelin about their newest album-

"Physical Graffiti".

Whether it's new concerning the student, or something happening in the field of music, you'll hear it first on WSTB-"The Rock of Southern Tech".

Regents Test

Well Coonskin, yu' no its Sprang time agin.

Ya George, I is wrndern whats a gona be the thang to does this here year, "Sprang fad" I thinks whats they calls it.

Well Coonskin, that there is somethin ta thanks about, but you can bets that there fad ain't a gona be passing that there damm, parden my french there, Rising Jr. Test. Unless of corse yous can really chew the fat on intilectual subject of female Lib, Women's Lib that is.

George Cracker, I shore does know what yous jawin' about, see'in how I been a stationary sophmore for some year and a quarter and I tells yu Cracker that there really gets up my.... Yu know George I hasn't figured out what that there topic, Women's Lib, has got to do with the price rice over there in China. Even though that there Mr. Hayes tries ta tell me the Price of Rice has got somethin to do with the number of fleas on my huntin hounds. But he-in must no what he-in is flappin about, cause he-in is teachin me how ta thank in that there Logic class.

Andy, I shore knows what ya talkin about. Specially 'bout dad dern Stationary Sophmore Test. Why Coonskin, they is even one so called college that gives bumper stickers to they stoodents that says, " I passed the Rising Jr." with a picture of a cat with graduation cloths on, yu knows that there funny hat. Them there smart folk that started that testing stuff says yu got to be smart enough to pass it and then I seen not one but two of them bumper stickers on a dog house down in Fort Valley, Georgia.

See there Cracker that just goes to show yu theys some good huntin dogs in South Georgia.
